ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 18.—When Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, president-elect, goes to the White House next Tuesday to confer with President Hoover on international debts, he will be accompanied by a professor and not a politician.

"Just breaking another precedent," Governor Roosevelt said, in announcing he had invited Professor Raymond Moley of Columbia University, to act as his advisor in the epochal conference on which the eyes of the world will be focused.

Right Hand Man

Professor Moley is head of the public law department at Columbia, and is 46 years old. He once was a school teacher in Ohio, and he acted as advisor to former Governor Al Smith on several occasions in the 1928 presidential campaign. He was Governor Roosevelt's "right hand

PA NEWC OBSERVES

Pa Newc spoke to Miss Helen Westlake, librarian at the Senior high school yesterday and learned that lunch hour on school days is readily taken advantage of by a group of students who flock to the library of their own accord. They delight in absorbing the good fiction volumes on the shelves, although many choose to pass their time with more weighty books. "Book Week," is now being observed in the school library.

Many there are who should have heard what Dr. C. Valentine Kirby, school art director for Pennsylvania, had to say Thursday about the Senior high school's excellent art work. Pa Newc engaged in brief conversation with the director, learning that his long formed opinion of the school's art department was not a bit wrong. Dr. Kirby spoke highly of it and its capable supervisors.

From every indication the Mayor's Relief Committee funds will be guaranteed another large sum in mid-December when that volunteer group of singers present their Christmas cantata, "The Messiah." The date will be Sunday afternoon, December 11.

"The Willshire Herald" published by J. A. Cox, formerly of New Castle, reported in yesterday's edition that snow one foot deep had fallen in Willshire, Van Wert county, Ohio. The wintry attack caused cars to be stuck on the highway, and school buses weren't able to make the grade. School was dismissed early in the morning.

Almost Thanksgiving, and New Castle hasn't had a real snowfall.

Word that the New Bedford-Pulaski road is open is welcome news to Lawrence county people. This links New Bedford with the New Wilmington-Sharon road.

BRICE IS APPOINTED 1ST WARD ALDERMAN

James C. Brice, of 38 North Jefferson street, was notified today by Governor Gifford Pinchot that he had been appointed as alderman of the First Ward, vice Walliam E. Marshall who resigned some weeks ago. Mr. Brice has notified the governor of his acceptance of the appointment and his commission will be executed within the next few days.

The new alderman is a graduate of St. Bonaventure College, and following his graduation from there, attended Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia where the expected to prepare for the practice of medicine. While a student in Jefferson the United States entered the war and he left medical school to enlist. As a member of Sanitary Squad 119, Mr. Brice spent over a year in France.

Returning from service Mr. Brice identified himself with the American Legion and after a number of years service in the various chairs he was made the Post Commander of the Perry S. Gaston Post No. 343.

In the two previous elections for alderman of the First Ward Mr. Brice was a candidate and came close to winning. He will have his offices at the corner of North and Jefferson street and will expedite the opening of them immediately after he receives his commission.

Intensive Hunt In Chicago For Slayer-Maniac

Young Hoodlums In Chicago Southside District Are Being Rounded Up

GIRL GIVES OFFICERS GOOD DESCRIPTION

Mother Of Suspected Paranoiac Aids In Hunt; Man Slain; Girl Attacked

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, Nov. 18—Young hoodlums of the city's southwest district were being rounded up today in an intensive hunt for the youthful desperado who spread a reign of terror in the neighborhood by holding up two couples in parked automobiles, murdering one man and attacking a girl.

The search centered on efforts to find Ignatius Varecha, 17 year old paranoiac who recently escaped from the Dixon State hospital where he had been committed for wounding a man during the holdup of a parked car. The youth's mother, Mrs. James Varecha, aided police in the hunt.

Description Given

Varecha was made the object of the search when Miss Lillian Henry gave authorities a description of the young terrorist who abducted her from the side of a male companion and held her captive for six hours, attacking her twice.

Miss Henry, a niece of former police commissioner John Alcock, was kidnaped just a few blocks from the spot where the young bandit had shot and killed Frank Jordan as the latter sat beside a young woman friend in a parked automobile.

Five youths already were in custody today, one of them the fugitive's brother, Frank.

THORNTON SPEAKS AT AKRON DINNER

Former Canadian Rail Chief, Once Located Here, Heard By Locals

Supervising Agent E. A. Fenton and Division Engineer J. S. Gillum, local Pennsylvania railroad officials, attended an Akron dinner this week honoring Sir Henry Worth Thornton, former president of the Canadian National Railways, and at one time a superintendent of the Erie & Ashtabula division.

Thornton, now heading west for a rest at Hot Springs, Ark., preparatory to leaving for a winter cruise abroad, delivered the principal address at the golden anniversary celebration of the founding of Akron's Chamber of Commerce.

After the banquet, Fenton and Gillum greeted Sir Henry as former rail associates. Thornton left here in 1909.

Democrats Will Start Move For Blue Law Change

Democrats In State Legislative Body Will Use Influence For Repeal

WILL NOT PLAY LISTLESS PART

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 18.—A militant campaign for Democrats in the forthcoming state legislative session had been mapped out today by state leaders.

Instead of playing a listless part in the coming session, the Democratic minority of the general assembly, will be a factor that the Republican controlled legislature will have to reckon with, according to Joseph F. Guffey, and Warren Van Dyke, state chieftains.

Heartened by the Roosevelt landslide and the fact their numbers will be greater than in years past, the Democrats plan to battle both the "dry" and "blue laws" at the next session of the legislature.

Efforts will be made to repeal the state prohibition enforcement act. Liberalization of the Sunday Blue laws also will be sought as well as economies in the cost of operating the state government.

"The Democratic delegation," said Guffey, "will act as a unit in sup-

Detroit Firm Is Lowest Bidder On Post Office

Seven Additional Bids Are Opened But Result Is Not Changed

EXPECT AWARD TO BE MADE SHORTLY

Work Should Soon Be Under Way On New Castle Structure

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
Special Washington Correspondent, New Castle News

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—It is apparent today that A. W. Kutcshe and Company, of Detroit, remain the low bidders on the contract for erection of the new post office building on the public square at New Castle.

At the United States Treasury department today, it was stated that the department had accepted seven late bids which failed to arrive for Wednesday's opening but which the post office department certified had been mailed sufficiently early.

Approval of these bids increased the total number of estimates on the New Castle project to 27, of which the offers of $198,000 on limestone and $209,500 on sandstone submitted by Kutsche and Company are the lowest.

Unless Kutsche and Company are unable to provide the necessary financial guarantee to the treasury, they will likely receive the construction contract.

$5,000 Loss In Early Morning Blaze In Store

Stock Of Mrs. G. Gillis At Moravia And Long Avenue Destroyed In Blaze

FIREMEN UNABLE TO DISCOVER ORIGIN

Fire of undetermined origin swept through the storeroom of Mrs. Gertrude Gillis at 1301 Moravia street, at the corner of Long avenue this morning at 4 o'clock, completely destroying the stock and threatening the building, a three story brick structure. The loss to the building and contents was estimated by Assistant Fire Chief James E. Thomas at $5,000, which is covered by insurance.

The blaze was discovered by Police Officers H. L. Richards and H. R. Showalter, who turned in an alarm from Box 55, located at the corner of Moravia and Long avenue, Central and No. 5 firemen responding.

When the firemen arrived on the scene, the flames were shooting out the side windows along Long avenue, but within a short period of time, they had the fire under control.

Roomers Driven Out

Several men who roomed on the second and third floors of the Gilles Block were driven out, scantily clad, by the fire, which was confined to the storeroom, however, and did not sweep through the building.

Had the blaze not been discovered soon after it began to work its way through the storeroom, the building might have been much more seriously damaged, as the flames were eating their way toward an elevator shaft on the south side of the build-

THREE DOES ARE SEEN AT VOGAN HOME NEAR HERE

Three doe deer abandoned the law of the wilds for a little time yesterday and roamed almost within the city limits.

It was about four o'clock Thursday evening when the frisky three romped into the back yard of the H. N. Vogan home, West Washington street extension, thereby surprising a group of people and gaining a little publicity.

After a few moments at the Vogan home the deer decided it wasn't just the right place for them to be and they used their long legs for one of those well-known cross-country dashes.

Completion Of New Highway Is Commemorated

Pulaski And New Bedford Communities Join In Celebration Last Evening

RED CROSS DINNER PRECEDES PROGRAM

Numerous Addresses Are Made During Evening —College Head Speaks

Completion of the important highway, linking Pulaski with New Bedford, on the Pinchot Road Program, was fittingly observed with a program in the Pulaski Presbyterian church last evening.

The program was preceded by a dinner, the kind for which the women of Pulaski have long been famous, the proceeds of which were turned over to the American Red Cross as a portion of the Pulaski community's contribution to the annual Roll Call now in progress.

There were several hundred people present from all sections of the country, and the real importance of the new connecting road was brought out by the various speakers.

R. L. Wallace presided as chairman of the evening, the program having been outlined by a committee of which Dr. Frederick Taylor was chairman.

Shields Gives Welcome

The invocation was given by Rev. Henry Shilling, pastor of the Pulaski Presbyterian church, after which former county commissioner, Tad E. Shields was introduced. Mr. Shields welcomed those present, and introduced a number who were in attendance, including William McElwee, Jr., assemblyman from the second district, Fred L. WILL ROGERS says:

(Special To The News)

SANTA MONICA, Cal., Nov. 18.—Well, the old propaganda is working, boys. Every night over the radio or in big lengthy editorials it keeps on saying, "What are you going to do? You can't collect, we have got to make some different terms." One message of three words will make every nation in Europe dig it up and send it over by plane, they would be in such a hurry to get it here. "Pay or default." There is not a country in the world that would dare default. It would spoil their credit, they couldn't borrow any money any more. England will pay you every dollar they promised, you can go bet your cent on that. And France is five times more able to pay than England, but a Frenchman is not an Englishman. You can see the whole thing is a frame-up, by 'em all "ganging" in with their protests at once.

Yours,

Erie Woman Is Suicide Victim

Woman In Maternity Ward Awaiting Fifth Baby Jumps To Her Death

(International News Service)

ERIE, Pa., Nov. 18.—One suicide attempt here during the night succeeded and another failed through the quick action of a policeman, police records showed today.

Mrs. Mary Meyers, 32, mother of four children and soon to become a mother of a fifth, leaped to her death from the second floor of St. Vincent's hospital in a fit of temporary insanity. Her unborn child died with her.

The woman's plunge marked the second suicide in hospitals here in a week.

Peter Kroll, jobless Buffalo, N. Y., resident, was rescued from the bay by a policeman who saw him plunge into the icy water in an attempt to end his life. The officer grabbed a boat hook and dragged Kroll to shore. A fire department pulmotor squad worked two hours to revive the man.

Hoover Awaits His Conference With Roosevelt

Will Be Guided By Conference In Debt Recommendations To Congress

SENTIMENT AGAINST DELAY IN PAYMENTS

President Hoover And Cabinet Have Long Session This Morning

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—President Hoover, it was indicated today, will be guided in his recommendations to congress on the European debt question almost wholly by his conferences with President-Elect Roosevelt and leaders in congress.

Mr. Hoover will meet his Democratic successor at the White House Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The following morning he will discuss the situation with a dozen ranking members of both houses and both parties. Thereafter he will prepare that portion of his message to congress dealing with the debts.

Just what Gov. Roosevelt will have to say to Mr. Hoover on the debt question is, of course, unknown. But no such uncertainty exists as to what the senators and representatives will say to him. They will report to a man that congress is almost 100 per cent opposed to cancellation or revision of the debts in any form, and to further extension of the moratorium.

Historic Occasion.

The meeting between the president and the president-elect will be an historic occasion; one that the whole world, particularly Europe, will be watching. No one can recall a precedent for it.

Gov. Roosevelt will be accompanied by Prof. Raymond Moley of Columbia university, who was one of his chief advisers on economic subjects during the campaign. Mr. Hoover will have at his elbow Secretary of the Treasury Ogden L. Mills. Moley and Mills suggest the "seconds" that always accompany duelists or prize fighters—except that the meeting between the president and the president-elect in no way resembles such an occasion. Their telephonic conversation late yesterday was said to have been most cordial. And the gravity of the situation precludes partisanship.

Personal Conference.

President Hoover had preferred to have the leaders in congress present at his meeting with Gov. Roosevelt, but the latter vetoed that plan by his insistence that the conference be wholly personal and informal. Mr. Hoover thereupon compromised by inviting to the White House the following day the ranking members of the committees of both houses that have to do with the debts question.

Until his conferences next week, President Hoover is holding in abeyance his proposed recommendation to congress that the war debts funding commission be re-created to review the existing agreements. He made this recommendation to congress a year ago, in consonance with his "understanding" with Premier Laval of France and Premier MacDonald of Great Britain. But congress ignored it and took no action. Since that time the deficit of the

WOMAN BREAKS LONDON-CAPETOWN RECORD

Amy Johnson's Flight Success

Makes Fastest Trip On Record From London To Capetown

LANDS AT CAPETOWN THIS AFTERNOON

(International News Service)

CAPETOWN, South Africa, Nov. 18—Completing the fastest journey ever made from London to Capetown, Amy Johnson, Britain's premier aviatrix, sat in her trim plane down on the Capetown airport this afternoon.

She slashed more than ten hours from the record held by her husband, Captain James A. Mollison, the first man to make a solo flight westward across the Atlantic.

Thousands of persons gathered at the airport accorded the daring aviatrix a triumphant welcome. But she had no desire for a hero's welcome.

"All I want is a bath and some sleep,' she said. "I've hardly closed my eyes since I left London."

Amy Johnson landed at 1:30 p. m. just 4 days, 6 hours and 53 minutes after leaving Lympne Aerodrome, near London. She smashed her husband's record by ten hours and 29 minutes.

colleague of Mr. Shields when he was commissioner, all of whom he welcomed along with the many others in attendance.

In referring to the new highway, Mr. Shields stated that it was the missing link in the roads connecting Cleveland, Youngstown and other points, with Westminster College.

The chairman, introduced former Sheriff Ed. Ayers, Hon. George T. Weingartner, and F. S. Brenneman, the latter chairman of the annual Roll Call for the Lawrence County Chapter, who briefly called attention to the Roll Call now in progress. Mr. Brenneman urged everyone to give their support to the Roll Call during the present campaign, telling of the urgent need for funds.

Lightner Speaks

H. W. Lightner, county superintendent of roads, stated that the new highway constructed between New Bedford and Pulaski was of the flexible, water-bound macadam type, and stated that the road was ready to receive the first surface treatment which would be started today.

It was constructed with a seven-inch base, and was the highest type of road being built at the present time along those lines.

He said under the original Pinchot program, the county was to receive 195 miles of roadway, of which 58 miles have already been built, resurfaced, or treated.

He stated that the county expects to receive two more programs which will approximate 18 miles, in the near future, which will be built with native stone wherever possible.

Mrs. Lloyd Mitcheltree head of the Pulaski Red Cross unit, thanked those who attended the dinner and aided them to help the Red Cross during the Roll Call. She introduced the aides on her committee, Mrs. Simpson, Mrs. Black, and Mr. Myers. She reported that they had received $86.50 to be turned over to the Lawrence County Chapter.

William McElwee, Jr., assemblyman from New Wilmington, gave a brief history of the development of transportation methods in the Pulaski district.

Gives Early History

Mr. McElwee was born at The Harbor, or New Hampden as it was known in the old days, his grandparents having settled there in 1825. He told of the early roads, and finally of the building of the canal, where The Harbor received its name from the fact that it was the farthest point to which the boats could go upstream. As a result, New Hampden or The Harbor, became a famous point and there were big warehouses there. Later, a dam was built forcing the water farther upstream, and New Hampden lost much of its prestige, and no longer was the flourishing business center it had been.

Later came the railroad, which stopped at The Harbor, but in time passed them up and the residents had to go to New Castle or Pulaski to get on.

Then came the interurban which eventually ceased to run and now we have the good roads, which pass through that district.

In closing, Mr. McElwee stated that he rejoiced with the residents of the community in the completion of the road, which he hoped would in time become one of the leading and most useful highways in the district.

Galbreath Citesc Progress

Dr. R. F. Galbreath, president of Westminster College was the concluding speaker on the program. He stated that he was grateful for the completion of the road, as it meant a short cut to the college from points in Ohio, and within a short time, stated that the residents of Pulaski would see students coming through their town from various points in Ohio.

He told of the progress of roads, citing the first automobile trip which was made between Philadelphia and Pittsburgh around 1898, which required eight days to complete, when there was only one small stretch of a few miles of improved roadway.

He also told of a number of humorous incidents which had occurred in the Pulaski district when he was a student at Westminster College 25 years ago.

He traced the improvement of roads back to the time of the Romans, whose handiwork has come down to the present time; some of the roads they built being still in existence.

Where the Roman built roads for their armies to travel over, however, we are building for peacetime progress and enjoyment, he pointed out.

He predicted the time would come when people could start out from Pulaski and travel not only to Mexico, but to countries in South America over improved roads. He told of the progress being made in China and Africa along these lines, also, and rejoiced that he living in the day when life is moving faster and more effectively through these great road improvements.

F. S. Brenneman closed the meeting with the benediction.

remarkable situation. Despite conditions, there are hundreds of residents who are saving regularly, it is evident.

New Castle citizens will await eagerly the announcement that the bid for construction of the new postoffice on the public square has been awarded. Bids opened at Washington Tuesday gave figures below the estimates of the cost, and also under the amount appropriated for the work, so that it seems that only technicalities remain to be disposed of before the contract can be awarded.

New Castle high school football team will be idle tomorrow. The team concludes the season Thanksgiving Day with Turtle Creek High school as the opponent at Taggart Field.

Pa Newc is informed that a couple of newlyweds were given a honeymoon trip up and down Washington street last night, in a popy cart.

A party of local sportsmen, consisting of Cy Ingham, Sheriff Frank N. Johnston and Cecil Wooley, were hunting on Tuesday afternoon. A rabbit was scared up by one of the dogs and they all took a shot at it, missing the rabbit but killing the dog, belonging to Mr. Wooley. Mr. Wooley has been in a quandry ever since as to who was guilty of firing the fatal shot.

man" during the recent campaign, accompanying him on his nation-wide tour and aiding him in the preparation of all his speeches.

Professor Moley has been mentioned as a possible appointment to the Roosevelt cabinet as attorney general, but his friends have indicated he would prefer to remain in an advisory capacity to the next president.

Governor Roosevelt's visit to the White House will be the first real meeting he has had with President Hoover since the days when both served in the administration of the late President Wilson. At that time Mr. Roosevelt was assistant secretary of the navy, and Mr. Hoover was food administrator, and they enjoyed frequent social contacts.

Roosevelt To Voice Opinion

While President-Elect Roosevelt has made it plain that he considers the responsibility for any immediate decisions on war debts rest on the shoulders of President Hoover and the present congress, it is understood he will not hesitate to voice his opposition to any extension of the moratorium.

Completely recovered from the attack of influenza, which confined him to his room at the executive mansion for nearly a week, the governor planned today to make his first visit to the executive offices in the Capitol since his election.

He will leave about 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, arriving in Washington about 3:30 that afternoon. He will go directly to the White House.

Whether Mr. Roosevelt will have dinner that night at the White House is not known, but he does not anticipate his conference with the president will last more than two or three hours. He will leave Washington early Wednesday morning for Warm Springs, Ga., where he will spend two weeks, resting and conferring with Democratic leaders of both houses of congress.

HOOVER AWAITS HIS CONFERENCE WITH ROOSEVELT

American treasury has grown steadily greater, and congressional opinion has crystallized even more solidly against any further concessions to Europe.

Cabinet Meets.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—President Hoover and his entire cabinet devoted a lengthy session today to impending developments in the international debt situation.

It was the first time since last August that all of the presidential advisers were present, and they remained closeted in the cabinet room long after the time such meetings usually end.

Vice President Curtis, who makes a general practice of attending cabinet meetings, was not present because of a sore throat. He had, however, conferred with Mr. Hoover both yesterday and Wednesday.

Next Tuesday's conference with President-Elect Roosevelt, the following day's assemblage at the White House of congressional leaders of both parties, and the problem of possible specific recommendations in his annual message to congress were the three interlocking topics brought up by the president.

It was understood the round-table discussion developed a unanimous agreement that congress is unalterably opposed to extending the moratorium, or revising or reducing world war debts in any way.

Mrs. Helen Stark and twin babies, a son and daughter, have been removed from the New Castle hospital to the home of the former's mother, Mrs. Charles N. Johnston, of Laurel boulevard.

Deaths of the Day

Tillie Maitland

Rev. Sam Maitland of the Pulaski road has received word of the death of his niece, Tillie Maitland, aged 43, daughter of W. A. Maitland, of Los Angeles, Calif. Miss Maitland died on November 10 and was buried November 12, in California.

The Maitlands were former residents of New Castle, going to California about twenty-four years ago.

Time of Funeral.

Funeral services for Stephen Cuchran, West Pittsburg, will be held Saturday at 10 a. m. from the Holy Cross Roman Catholic church at West Pittsburg, and interment will be made in St. Nicholas cemetery.

Roy Mossman

Roy Mossman, 20 North Mercer street, Greenville, died Thursday at his home after an illness of six months. He was employed by the P-O Electric company of Greenville.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. J. S. Mossman, Greenville; two sisters, Mrs. F. W. First and Mrs. C. H. VanFleet of New Castle, and a brother, Plummer Mossman of Birmingham, Ala.

Funeral services will be held on Saturday, November 19, at 2:30 p. m. from the Osborne Funeral Home, Greenville. Interment will be made in Jamestown.

Thomas Barton Corner

Thomas Barton Corner, aged 66, of Number Five Mine, Mercer R. D. 7, died at his home Thursday at 8:30 a. m. following an eight months illness of asthma and dropsy.

Mr. Corner was born at Clarks Mills March 27, 1866, the son of Thomas Barton and Esther Bean Corner and had been a resident of Mercer county all his life, having been employed as a miner.

He was a member of the Jackson Center Presbyterian church.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Margaret Jones Corner and the following children; Edward, William, John, Ralph and Thomas, at home; Mrs. Harold Blair, Carlton; Mrs. Roy Morford and Mrs. Leroy Garrett, West Middlesex and Mrs. Leonard Ringer, Mercer; twelve grandchildren and three half sisters.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 1 p. m. from the home with Rev. Marquard of Grove City officiating. Interment will be made at Oak Hill, Sandy Lake.

A. M. Pitzer

A. M. Pitzer, well known resident of this city for many years, and recently retired from business as a merchant in New Wilmington died suddenly Thursday at the home of Karl Norris, Euclid avenue, after having been taken ill while automobile riding with a grandson.

Mr. Pitzer was born in Lawrence county, April 15, 1859, the son of Smith and Sarah Shaffer Pitzer and was 73 years of age. He was married 48 years, his wife being Anna Sankey. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church of New Wilmington. He was held in high esteem by all who knew him.

He had been a resident of New Castle for thirty years, when about five years ago he went to New Wilmington, where he engaged in the grocery business. About two weeks ago, he disposed of his business there and came to this city and was residing at the home of his son, Reed Pitzer.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Anna Sankey Pitzer, two sons, Wallace Pitzer of New Wilmington and Reed Pitzer of this city, also one brother George Pitzer of New Castle and seven grand-children.

ing, which would have spread the fire through the building in a short time.

The Gilles Block is divided into two storerooms on the first floor, which are connected by several openings between. The blaze started in the rear of the north store room and swept toward the front of the building, and along the ceiling on the lower side toward the elevator shaft.

Received New Stock

The stock in the north storeroom, consisting of clothing and women's wearing apparel was almost entirely consumed or so badly damaged by smoke and water as to be valueless.

Mrs. Gilles stated that most of it was new stock which had been received within the past two weeks, a large quantity having just arrived and been unpacked yesterday. She was unable to determine the loss as she had made no recent inventory.

Firemen were unable to determine how the fire might have originated.

port of legislation in the interests of the people. We are going to sponsor bills for repeal of the Snyder-Armstrong Act and the Sunday Blue laws."

Local Option

"That's the program," added Van Dyke. "The Democratic national platform and the state platform too a very definite position against prohibition and in furtherance of these planks we shall advocate repeal.

"And the Blue Laws ought to be repealed. If not repealed outright they should certainly be liberalized sufficiently to permit communities to determine whether they want a liberal Sunday or a closed Sunday."

More Wrigley Gum Users Rewarded With Dollars

Wrigley Reporters Cover New Castle And Vicinity Looking For Gum Users

By MR. SPEAR

Station W-R-I-G-L-E-Y broadcasting again, telling you of some of our experiences yesterday, and giving you the names of some of the people we met, and some of their opinions of Wrigley's gum.

The first young lady I approached yesterday was MISS MILDRED "PAT" MILLER, 415 Leasure Ave., who told me she thought the new cellophane wrapper was so easily opened, and it protected the flavor of Spearmint.

When Miss Mint paid Mr. W. J. EROE, 332 Berger Place, a new dollar bill he said he carried Wrigley's Doublemint all the time because it was a valued aid to digestion.

MRS. DON P. ECKLES, 7 W. Garfield Ave., told me she preferred the Doublemint flavor for it's refreshing qualities. Of course Mrs. Eckles was handed a brand new dollar bill.

When I stopped MR. PAUL F. BUTZ, 9 N. Mercer St., he said "I always carry Spearmint because my Kiddies have chosen it as their favorite." Mr. Butz was presented with a new dollar bill, and he told me he was going to give it to the Kiddies too.

MISS CATHERINE CUNNINGHAM, New Castle Hospital, showed me a package of Juicy Fruit and said she used it regularly. She also stated "the flavor is lasting, and Wrigley's gum is always fresh."

The next person to receive a new dollar bill was MR. GEORGE B. BRINTON, 911 Harrison St., who said he particularly liked Doublemint after smoking. MRS. WILLIAM MINNER, East Brook, St., told me she liked Spearmint because it was always refreshing. Mrs. Minner is a dollar richer because she had a package of this brand with her when I met her yesterday.

Miss Mint and myself made a visit to the Mt. Jackson school yesterday too. Pupils and teachers seemed to be prepared for us. It was a lot of fun to pay out Wrigley dollars to such an enthusiastic crowd. Here are the names of some students and teachers that received these new bills. ELEANOR CRAIG, R. D. No. 8 Mahoningtown, MARIE McCURLEY, New Middletown, Ohio, BILLIE MILLER, Mahoningtown, MAXWELL CEGELK, R. D. No. 1, BROWNIE PIEROG, Mahoningtown R. D. No. 8, MISS KATHERINE JAMESON, 10 S. Front St., New Castle, MARY LOU KLAMAR, Enon Valley R. D. No. 1, ROBERT MARS, Mahoningtown R. D. No. 8, ELIZABETH HILLIER, Mahoningtown R. D. No. 8, RUTH MacDOWELL, Mahoningtown, R. D. No. 8, MR. H. I. BARTGES, Mahoningtown R. D. No. 9, LOUISE THOMPSON, Mt. Jackson, and CHESTER SHERER, Mahoningtown R. D. No. 8.

JOE MARTIN, 303 E. Reynolds St., showed me a package of Spearmint and said it was his favorite. When I presented him with a new dollar he said he was going to give it to his Mother.

Here are the names of more people who were prepared to give us their opinion, and who received new dollar bills. JACK KAUFMAN, 1226 E. Washington St., HELEN N. FRISCO, 946 S. Mill St., GEORGE E. ROBSON, 231 Edgewood Ave., LILY KERVINEN, 510 John St., WALTER GREEN, 653 Superior St., OLIVE FULKERSON, 205 N. Pine St., JACK NEWELL, 1015 E. Washington St., ETHEL A. Ask Information Concerning Trucks

Officials of the Third Class Cities of Pennsylvania today by letter requested local officials to provide them with information regarding trucks which exceed five tons in weight.

The information desired the amount of road repairs made necessary by the operation and the expense. They also asked about repairs and expense of trucks not over five tons and also if most of the trucks over five tons were those which passed through the city.

McQuiston Relieved Of Paying Damages

In the case of William Dickinson against Robert McQuiston, in which the plaintiff sued for damages as the result of an automobile accident, the jury at court today returned a verdict in favor of the defendant, which means that no damages need be paid.

Dickinson was going south on the Parkstown road McQuiston was going west on West Washington street extension. The cars met at the intersection of the road. Dickinson blamed the accident on McQuiston and brought suit for damage to his car.

Miss Jean Patterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Patterson, Delaware avenue, was in Pittsburgh last night to attend a dinner-dance given as a feature of a convention now assembled there.

BOY INJURED IN WALKING INTO AUTO

Henry G. Grossman, of West Pittsburg, was enroute north on Moravia street just south of Terrace avenue Thursday, when Walter Smith, Jr., a small boy, who resides at 1219 South Jefferson street, walked into the side of his car and was knocked down. The boy was removed to the home of Mrs. Clara Boron, 1708 Moravia street, where it was found that he had sustained a bump on the head. He was later removed to his home. His injury was apparently not serious.

When CHILDREN

—don't gain weight

—don't grow strong

—don't keep well

The stomach is not to blame when a child is finicky about food. Nor is every sluggish girl or boy constipated. Instead of a lot of medicine, give a little pure fig syrup. You'll see a change in twenty-four hours! In a couple of weeks, your youngster will have the appetite of a young animal!

It's true, mothers, for it's Nature. California fig syrup is bottled health for the little ones.

For Any Sluggish Child

Pale, sickly children whose tongues are always coated, and who are never really hungry, are suffering from stasis. That means a sluggish colon; a colon clogged with waste. They need the "California treatment." You can give this treatment yourself, anytime, anywhere; it's simple. Every druggist has California fig syrup all bottled, with full directions for a babe of two years or child in his teens. Its delicious taste makes it delightful to use; no child ever tired of it.

Start tonight, giving enough to cleanse the colon of every bit of poisonous waste. Then a spoonful or so, every other day, until the child's appetite, color, weight, and general health tell you all sluggishness or constipation has been conquered.

When a bad cold or severe sickness has sapped a child's strength and stamina, remember California fig syrup.

IMPORTANT!

If you want to get real results, get the real California fig syrup. Do not accept any bottle which does not say CALIFORNIA fig syrup.

HELENA AUXILIARY ENTERTAINS AT TEA

The parlors and assembly room of the First Presbyterian church were beautiful reception rooms Thursday evening when the members of the Helena Auxiliary, Mrs. Robert McBurney president, entertained at a silver tea.

Ferns, flowers and bittersweet decorated the rooms most effectively and the small tables arranged for the guests were centered with silver candles in silver holders, while one long table centered with a glittering silver tree, seated the extra guests. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gustafson, missionaries from India, were honored guests. The guests were received at the door by Misses Shale and Brenneman.

Dr. W. E. McClure acted as master of ceremonies, introducing the various numbers on the program. Living pictures fetured the program and these were arranged by Mrs. Clinton D. Keagy. "The portrait of Washington" was posed by Mrs. John McNeill; "Mona Lisa" was posed by Camilla Smith; a most pleasing song was sung by W. J. Jones, M. J. Jones, W. Fletcher and E. E. Branstedder, accompanied by Morgan Jones; "A Pot of Basil" was posed by Mrs. Williard Belknap; Mrs. J. B. Lightner sang, accompanied by Mrs. Merle Ingham; "The Age of Innocence" was posed by Miriam Smith; George Anthony and Harry Evans had a duet, accompanied by Mrs. John Evans; Mrs. S. Shale posed for the picture "Mary Magdeline" by Viti; Griff Thomas gave a reading; Mrs. Earl Emerick and Camilla Smith posed for "The Virgin Consoler"; Mrs. Elsie Von Molke Emery gave a violin number, accompanied by Mrs. Merle Ingham; Mrs. Earle Emerick posed for "The Sistine Madonna"; "The Pilgrims of Emmaus" was posed by Camilla Smith, Mrs. Earl Emerick, Mrs. Williard Belknap and Mrs. John McNeill.

Mrs. Clinton Keagy sang a number, accompanied by Mrs. Ingham; Morgan Jones had a piano number, Camilla Smith posed for "Ecce Homo" and the program closed with a piano number by Morgan Jones.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses at the small tables.

Mrs. Morgan Jones was general chairman of arrangements and was efficiently aided by Mrs. Charles Martin, Mrs. S. M. Matheny, Mrs. E. A. Fenton, Mrs. George White, Mrs. J. A. Sechler and Miss Wilda Lowe.

GOLDEN WEDDING CELEBRATION HELD

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McConnell of East Brook was the scene of a memorable celebration Wednesday evening when they quietly entertained at a family dinner in observance of their golden wedding anniversary.

The menu was served at 6 o'clock and covers were laid for twenty-two at the beautifully appointed table, all details being carried out in a color scheme of gold and white. Due to illness, Mrs. Wilma Young of Parkman and Mrs. Ethel McCutcher, of Garrettsville, O., two daughters were unable to be present.

Those sharing the event included Will G. McConnell, wife and children Mary, Betty, John and Billy, of Parkman, O., J. H. McConnell and wife and daughter Dorothy and son Bobbie of Court street, New Castle, Rev. Ralph I. McConnell and wife and children Elizabeth, Kenneth and Edward of Erie and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kocher of Energy.

During the evening neighbors and friends called and the honored couple in addition to receiving a number of messages of congratulations, were the recipients of a purse of gold containing over a hundred dollars.

TUESDAY KENSINGTON THANKSGIVING DINNER

Most delightful was the Thanksgiving dinner party held by associates of the Tuesday Kensington last evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Haydon on Sumner avenue. The menu was served at 6:30 o'clock, places being arranged for 30 guests.

The balance of the evening was spent informally with games of a wide variety and noval prizes were awarded the winners at the close of the contests.

The committee in charge of this party which so successfully cooperated included Mrs. Lillie B. Jones, chairman, Mrs. Stanley Treser, Mrs. Paul D. Weller, Mrs. James Reimold, Mrs. Haydon and Mrs. T. C. Post. Plans for the next meeting will be announced.

Honors Sister at Dinner.

Miss Elizabeth Sterrett of Haus avenue entertained a few friends in her home Wednesday at dinner honoring her sister, Mrs. George Smith of Girard, who is visiting here.

The menu was served at 6 o'clock at a table appointed in fall suggestions. Places were laid for Margaret Breno, Mrs. Grace Crill, Ada Carpenter, Nettie Hanna, Lela Strayer, Lillie Fisher, Bess Allen, Mrs. Bonita Forney, Bess Harris and Mrs. Winifred James. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. George Metz and Claire Funkhouser.

During the hours that followed, games, chat and music were the pastimes enjoyed.

Pi Omicron Meeting.

On Thursday evening the Pi Omicron members gathered at the Y. W. C. A. for their regular meeting with Mrs. R. F. Roberts giving an interesting book report. The current topics were reviewed by Miss Arlene Waide.

As a special guest they had Mrs. Frank A. Schulz.

FAMILY HONORS JOHN B. RODGERS

John B. Rodgers of Willow Grove a veteran of the Roundhead regiment of the Civil War, passed his ninetieth birthday Thursday and to do him honor six of his seven children assembled at the home of his son, J. Ernest Rodgers, Franklin avenue, for a six o'clock chicken dinner.

The only one who could not be present was a son, John P. Rodgers of Wheeling, W. Va.

These in the group were Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Rodgers, of Irwin; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rodgers, of Irwin; Mrs. H. H. Stimple and daughter Ruth of Willow Grove; Rev. and Mrs. J. Arthur Miller of Rimersburg and children John and Betty; Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Rodgers and Mr. and Mrs. J. Ernest Rodgers and daughter Eleanor of this city.

After dinner the hours were spent most informally, and plans made for assembling next year of Mr. Rodger's birthday.

O. M. K. CLUB DINNER HONORS MEMBER

Mrs. Jessie Camblin of North Beaver street entertained the O. M. K. club members in her home Thursday as a courtesy to Miss Louise Bauman, a charter member. The hours were spent informally with 500 contests and at conclusion of play the guests motored to the Cathedral where they were served dinner by the White Shrine members at 6:30 o'clock.

The hostess was assisted earlier in the afternoon by her daughter, Mrs. Clifford N. Propst, who favored the guests with several musical selections.

A special guest was Mrs. Ira E. Swisher.

On Thursday, December 8, the club will meet in regular session with Mrs. Camblin.

Open Door Class.

The Open Door Bible class of the Third U. P. church had a monthly business meeting and social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Reynolds on Superior street. The business session was in charge of Harold Brown. Plans were made for a tureen supper to be held Tuesday evening at the church, at which time the ladies will entertain the men as a result of a recent attendance contest won by the men.

At this time each member will be asked to contribute some foodstuff which will be given to some needy family for Thanksgiving. Games were enjoyed during the evening under the leadership of Mrs. Hilda Brown and Mrs. Marie Burdett. At a seasonable hour lunch was served by Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds.

Special guests included Mr. and Mrs. Edward McKissick, and the teacher, A. J. Minick, and wife and daughter Pauline.

On Tuesday, November 29, the club will meet with Mrs. Charles Freeman on Fairmont avenue.

Hosts to Class.

Rev. and Mrs. C. S. Joshua, Haus avenue, have been entertaining the various classes and organizations of the Croton Methodist church in their home in a series of parties and Thursday evening they delightfully entertained the members of the Willing Workers class and the Ladies Aid society.

The church program for the year was discussed and working plans made, after which Mrs. Joshua, assisted by Betty, served refreshments.

FUTILE "MARCHES"

MARCHES upon Washington, whether by the needy or the greedy, abuse rather than use the sacred American right of petition. They amount to coercion and force disguised in the innocent and legitimate clothing of petition.

When the B. E. F. left the national capital last summer the entire nation expressed the devout wish that the incidents surrounding that unfortunate affair would never be repeated to shame the nation, but even now with the picture of that fatal and futile escapade still fresh in their minds there are reports of other groups being formed for the expressed purpose of marching upon Washington when congress convenes next month.

Not only is the practice un-American, unavailing and demoralizing but it creates an unnecessary emergency and health menace. It is unfair to the people of the District of Columbia and brings only hardship and suffering to the marchers.

For these reasons the states and communities in which the marchers are reported forming or may form should do everything within their power to discourage them. They have already removed the excuse by housing, feeding and clothing everyone who makes his or her plight known.

The public will be doing itself and the government a service by refusing to help the marchers on their way. What has made these marches possible in the past has been the mistaken kindness of states and cities.

GENERAL DAWES OUT OF POLITICS FOR GOOD

Former Vice President Charles G. Dawes brushes aside the suggestion that he may return to public life with the abrupt statement that "my retirement is permanent; I am out of politics for good." His health is excellent, but he is past seventy and is deeply engrossed in his banking business. He has done much work for the people at home and abroad. Besides his four years in the Vice Presidency, he has served as the head of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. When he severed his connection with that organization it meant that he was quitting public life. General Dawes is a man who knows his own mind. He came into national prominence in the McKinley campaign in 1896, and has been a factor in the affairs of his party ever since.

His withdrawal from the political arena is no surprise. He long ago made it evident that his private interests were entitled to his time and attention. But his picturesque personality will be greatly missed by his friends and by the public. Few men have a greater power of vivid expression and none have used it more freely. It will be a long time before his famous "Hell and Maria" speech before a Congressional Committee is forgotten. A man accustomed to doing things quickly, he has never been able to tolerate unnecessary delay on the part of others. His part in inaugurating the budget system for the Federal Government is a matter of record. In war and in peace he has been a most valuable public servant.

General Dawes may not take any active part in politics, but it will be very difficult for a man like him to lose interest in the welfare of the Government to which he has given such rare service.

ABOUT THE WAR DEBTS

There is much ado at the present time over the war debts problem; President Hoover is studying the situation carefully; he and President-elect Roosevelt will confer on the matter soon, thus setting a precedent; France has a new proposal affecting disarmament; all European nations, practically, have renewed communications with us since the recent election.

The situation itself has numerous angles. Many advocate out-and-out cancellation, others urge drastic measures for collection, and so on. It's a grave, grave problem, one of the worst the world has ever faced, and it grows more serious every year as interest mounts and European nations continue to give armament-building distinct precedence over debt-paying.

Authoritative figures on the proportions between arms costs and debt payments of the five principal European debtor nations should prove interesting in connection:

Great Britain, owing a total of $11,105,965,000, was scheduled to pay to the United States in 1932 a total of $159,520,000 on this debt. During the preceding year, she paid out $461,475,990 for arms building—or almost three times as much as the debts payment scheduled for this year and postponed one year by the Hoover moratorium.

France, likewise, paid out a vast sum in armaments—$541,854,102. She was scheduled to pay only $50,000,000 on the war debts, practically one-eleventh of the arms cost for ONE YEAR

Italy spent $331,449,094 for armament—building in 1931, and had her debt payment of $14,706,125 postponed.

Little Belgium spent $34,224,000 for arms in 1930, and her debt payment in 1932 was $7,950,000.

And then Poland! This belligerent little nation, determined to hold onto that Polish corridor and bristling at any German claims, got rid of exactly $94,561,600 for armaments last year whereas less than one-eleventh of that sum would have paid the war debt payment to this country in 1932—when this had to be postponed by the moratorium.

These figures tell graphically the story of what is now going on in Europe. Little need be added. Certainly they indicate that the nations of Europe are thinking more in the terms of future wars than in paying the costs of past battles. Uncle Sam is certainly holding the bag on this one, as the street parlance would have it.

And, incidentally, a goodly part of the money already collected from Europe in debt payments is merely a return of our own money through different channels; that is, we loaned the money to Germany, Germany paid it to the allied nations in reparations, and the Allies sent it along to us in the shape of "installments" on their war debts to us.

Something has got to be done about this situation soon. The European slant on the matter is made up, in good percentage, of opinions that Uncle Same should ease up more than before or even cancel the debts. The American consensus, contrariwise, would appear as insistent upon some sort of payments.

But whatever is done it should not be forgotten for a moment that the principal debtor nations are annually paying out far greater sums for increases of armaments than for reduction of war debts.

Probably the most misapplied word among the 400,000, more or less, in our noble language, is "foolproof."

Ballbearing trains that will equal the speed of airplanes are predicted. They are expected to go almost as fast as some motorists drive.

COMFORT IN WORDS.

I pick up George Borrow's "Lavengo" and I turn the pages until I come to the end of a certain chapter.

Until I come to the paragraph that tells of the meeting between Mr. Borrow and Jasper Petulengro, the gypsy, sitting on the heath with his eyes fixed on the red ball of the setting sun.

And this, then, is one of my favorite passages in literature. I cannot say exactly why because I cannot accept all that is in it. But when I read it, it lifts me and makes me feel better. I am happier and I feel a cool, clean wind blowing over the land that sweeps pettiness and triviaty away. Here! Take it!

"What is your opinion of death, Mr. Petulengro?" said I, as I sat down beside him.

"My opinion of death, brother, is much the same as that in the old song of pharaoh, which I have heard my grandam sing . . . When a man dies, he is cast into the earth and his wife and child sorrow over him. If he has neither wife or child, then his father and mother, I suppose; and if he is quite alone in the world, why, then, he is cast into the earth, and there is an end of the matter."

"And do you think that is the end of man?"

"There's an end of him, brother, more's the pity."

"Why do you say so?"

"Life is sweet, brother."

"Do you think so?"

"Think so!—There's night and day, brother, both sweet things; sun, moon, and stars, brother, all sweet things; there's likewise a wind on the heath. Life is very sweet, brother; who would wish to die?"

"I would wish to die—"

"You talk like a gorgio—which is the same as talking like a fool—were you a Rommany Chal you would talk wiser. Wish to die, indeed! A Rommany Chal would wish to live forever!"

"In sickness, Jasper?"

"There's the sun and stars, brother."

"In blindness, Jasper?"

"There's the wind on the heath, brother. If I could only feel that, I would gladly live forever."

Do you feel that wind of wisdom and courage blowing through those words? A clean wind, a fair wind, a wind that should never die down.

WATCH YOUR STEP.

What is your attitude when you find yourself in a crowded district?

Do you push and jostle others and act sour and grouchy if some one steps on a pet corn or pokes you in the ribs?

Very likely you are doing the same to someone near you.

If you don't like crowded, why choose to go out at the time of day when you know that the streets and stores are most likely to be full of people?

Perhaps you are one of the every day throng going to and from work.

You, then, are not the only one who has a right to be annoyed.

But if you can command your own time, and "abhor crowds", there isn't an excuse in the world for your being caught in one.

One of the best times to show your breeding and your home training is when you find yourself in a surging mass of people, all bent on the same objective.

You won't gain an inch by being surly and trying to push in ahead of others, for someone will pay you in the same coin, no doubt.

Watch your step and keep your head and your temper and enjoy it.

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST

THE ORDINARY FOLKS

Just an ordinary man, eight and forty to the day,
With a pair of stout-legged children
starting upwards on life's way
And the mother of them mending little garments when they fray.

Just an ordinary house on an ordinary street
Where a grocer and a druggist and a foundry foreman meet.
And the women folks are busy cooking meals for men to eat.

Just an ordinary yard filled with ordinary things,
A clump of shasta daisies and nasturtiums climbing strings,
A patch of grass to sprawl on, and a happy bird that sings!

Why these ordinary lines in this ordinary way
To the ordinary people we encounter every day?
Just because they stand to duty
when some softer people stray.

CIRCUMSTANTIAL EVIDENCE

A country school board was visiting a school, and the principal was putting his pupils through their paces.

"Who signed Magna Charta, Robert?" he asked, turning to one boy.

"Please, sir, 'twasn't me," whimpered the youngster.

The teacher, in disgust, told him to take his seat; but an old tobacco-chewing countryman on the board, was not satisfied; so, after a well-directed aim at the cuspidor, he said, "Call that boy back. I don't like his manner. I believe he did do it."

I love—Oh, how I love to ride
The Iron horse in his fiery pride;
All other joys seem dull and vain,
When I lay my hand on his misty mane.

Fear him not! with his ribs of steel,
His flaming throat and his brushing wheel;
And his smoky crest, so black and tall,
Like a pillar covered with a funeral pall.

Though his stamping shakes the solid ground,
And he scattered fire-flakes all around;
He's gentle as jennet in lady's rein
When he feels my hand on his misty mane.

Let me astride of the Iron Horse!
Full of fierce fury, speed and force;
And hark how he pants, and blows, and snorts,
While my skill his eager bounding thwarts.

But when I'm mounted on his back,
And you see him coming—clear the track!
Nothing can check him on his course,
As he thunders along—my Iron Horse!

Then huzza! the Iron Horse for me!
The eagle scarce flies as fast as he;
He skims the valley and scours the plain,
And shakes like a cloud his misty mane.

He tracks the prarie, climbs the hill,
The wild woods echo his neighing shrill;
And when the fierce tempest lashes the shores,
Louder than ever the storm, he roars.

Movement Back To Farms Credited With Relief Value

Net Gains For Country Districts May Bring Their Total Population To High Point By End Of This Year With Enrichment Of Rural Life

Statistics from the department of agriculture have drawn the attention of the country to a definite "back to the farm" movement in the United States, which is believed to have been due in part to the depression, and to offer one means of reducing the demands for relief. Migration in both directions still continues, but the net gain for the farms is declared impressive. It is estimated that by the end of this year the total rural population will have reached 32,000,000, about equal to the high mark preceding the war. It is observed, however, that part of the gain is due to the practice by city workers of living in the country.

"This new hegira," in the opinion of the CHICAGO DAILY NEWS, "essentially a quest for subsistence, promises to take many thousands of the unemployed and their families out of dilapidated slums into the fresh air, sunshine and good food that are the minimum heritage of every industrious farmer. As a form of self-help in a nation where cheap farm land is still plentiful and available on easy terms, the movement has no equal." The Daily News states that "the farmer enjoys numerous enviable advantages in living conditions," and that "even though he worries over his unpaid mortgages, burns corn for fuel and sells wheat at the lowest price in 280 years, he is in one respect much better off than the urban unemployed," for "his troubles are caused by food surpluses, rather than lack of food, and the home larder is surfeited with good things to eat."

"Because of the present overproduction of agricultural commodities," says the CHARLESTON (W. VA.) DAILY MAIL, "the increase in the farm population doesn't appear to brighten the prospect of solving the farm problem. It, nevertheless, has an encouraging aspect in its effect upon the problem of relief. Former farmers who have been unable to make a living in cities should be able to do this at least, on farms. Their return to the soil, therefore, reduces the need of relief work by that much and cuts down unemployment."

"It is this ability to shift surplus labor into localities where labor shortage exists which has made unemployment virtually unknown in United States in normal times," according to the EAU CLAIRE LEADER, which offers the judgment as to the movement in both directions: "Here are more tenants for idle farms, cheap farm labor, new consumers of farm products at the source of production and relief for city welfare agencies. Back to the soil for many of them means the difference between privation and three square meals a day. Industrial recovery will again reverse the direction of the migration between city and farm, luring farm boys and girls to the city, converting tenant farmers into city workers, and again evacuating the least fertile acres. Which is well, for the country has too many food producers and not enough food consumers."

"Multitudes of the former farm girls and boys, married and single," records the PASADENA STAR-NEWS, "are going back. The old homestead and the old home community look good to them, 'like the shadow of a rock in a weary land.' Relatives and friends are welcoming them and they are returning to start life over again out where the potatoes and the apples, the grains, the vegetables, the fruits and the good dairy cows yield their nourishing and relishing abundance. There may not be so much money back there, what gold surpasses the golden butter? Or what silver the shining dishes on the old home table laden with the delicacies which only the farm can produce? Who thinks of Eden as a place where there was lots of money?" As to the former movement away from the old homes, The Star-News remarks: "Some went to to the city to make money; some went to feed an ambition; others went because the glare and the excitement and the white lights of the city lured them. Whatever the actuating purpose, many went to the city who should not have gone. They did not succeed in the city. They suffered. Many of them became parasites; too many of them drifted into vice and crime; too many of them made a mess of things and became burdens to the community, rather than useful assets."

"Everybody that lives in the country," advises the COLUMBIA (S. C.) STATE, "is not running or helping to run a farm. On the other hand, almost everyone living in the city contributes to the city's fund, pays it tribute. The automobile has made it possible for a merchant or other business man to have his store or office in the town and really lives miles away in the more wholesome and comfortable countryside. These folk seldom so much as raise their own garden-truck, but buy it from their neighbors or, principally, from some shop in town. They are in the farmland but are not of it, not part and parcel of the soil. If this portion of the so-called farm population is deducted from the sum, we fear the scales will dip against the farm, and the tides of destiny will be seen still running to the cities, enriching them with their lush and fructifying alluvial, a scraping or skimming as cream from the milk and the butter fat that should be utilized for the nourishment of the soil and its people by whom it is created."

"It is decidedly a wholesome movement, even if its significance is social rather than economic," thinks the PROVIDENCE JOURNAL, which makes the explanation of one phase of the phenomenon: "It seems likely that a great many of the hundreds of thousands who have moved from the cities to the farms in these three years have not taken to farming very seriously. Automobiles and good roads have made a rural residence practicable for people working in cities, and small farms and country homes scarcely to be classified as farms have been available at low prices. This sort of migration does not mean much increased agricultural production but it does give the transplanted city people more 'elbow room,' better air to breathe, and a chance to play at gardening if they want to."

Now, Europe is only a combination of states. There are not as many as compose the United States of America, yet how would the citizen of this country like to cross a custom line every time he traveled from one state to another?

Continue Probe In Philadelphia

House Campaign Funds Committee Probing Recent Election

ACCUSATIONS ARE MADE IN HEARING

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 18.—The Motley parade of witnesses with stories of bribery, vote buying, use of liquor, intimidation and other illegal methods at the polls continued before the house campaign funds committee today at the resumption of its hearing into complaints of last week's election here.

Investigation by the committee centers chiefly around alleged tactics of the William S. Vare Philadelphia organization workers.

Hear Many Witnesses

Thirty-two witnesses passed before representatives Heartsill Ragon, (D) of Ark., Byron E. Harlan, (D) of Ohio, and John Nelson, (R) of Maine, yesterday.

Their testimony charged:

Buying of votes, and offering of bribes.

Distribution of liquor at polls; drinking at polls, and intoxicated persons voting.

Intimidation of voters; threats and infliction of bodily violence; watchers barred from polling places; thuggery at polls.

Voting machines jammed by organization workers; illegal assistance to voters, and illegal registering.

Many Charges Hurled

In the flood of testimony taken from witnesses representative Clinton A. Sowers of the state assembly was accused of buying votes. Sheriff Richard Weglein, was quoted as having instructed ward workers in his ward to "throw out" of polling places all watchers for the opposition. Councilman James Clark, it was testified, barred a Democratic watcher from a polling place, and J. R. K. Scott, leader of the 14th ward, was accused of "allaying the fear" of judges warned against irregularities.

THREE HELD ON ARSON CHARGES AT YOUNGSTOWN

(International News Service)

WARREN, O., Nov. 18.—Three men, all believed members of an arson gang blamed for numerous fires and blasts in Youngstown, Warren and other sections of the valley recently, today awaited trial on indictments charging arson.

The prisoners were booked as George Georges and Philip Caggigons, both of Warren, and Steve Karavalos, Toronto, O. All three were indicted in connection with the blast and fire which destroyed the Georges home. Karavalos was suffering from serious burns when arrested.

Seven Saved From Death By Fumes In Home In Pittsburgh

Mother, Three Children And Two Sisters Found Unconscious From Gas Fumes

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 18—A mother, her three children, and two sisters owed their lives to a neighbor today, who saved them from death by asphyxiation in a home here yesterday afternoon.

The seven, Mrs. Ella Alttorfer, 25, her three children Helen, 2, Davis 6 and John 4, and the two sisters, Katherine 18 and Anna Haley, 24, were rushed to Allegheny General hospital. David was revived by an inhalator. Physicians reported the condition of all as fair.

When August Kletke entered the home, he found the three children, clad only in night clothes, lying on the bed. The others were found in various parts of the house .

Morgan Upsets Precedent, Hands Out His Opinion

J. P. Morgan, American Financier Heretofore Known As American Sphinx

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Known to ship news reporters as the American Sphinx because of his usual silence in reply to questions, J. P. Morgan, banker, back today from Europe, astonished them by his unwonted loquacity on arrival.

He talked to the extent of 28 words.

"The spirit in England toward the general outlook is more hopeful," he declared. "There must be justification for this optimism."

Asked when American conditions would be more settled now that the election was over, he answered:

"We have a long time to wait for March 4."

Police Cars Run Business Basis

Exact Figures Are Now Kept On Trips, Mileage And Expense

An innovation made in the operation of the three police cars by Chief of Police John F. Haven enables the chief to have close tab on the business of the cars with regard to the work of the department, whether he is present or not.

Each driver on reporting for duty on the respective turns, reports the mileage on the speedometer when he takes charge and also when he is through.

The information together with records of the number of trips and gasoline used, makes it possible for an accurate record of the cost of operation, also the time spent approximately, on various calls and enables the head of the department to have his finger on the use of the cars at any time.

The world's "slowest" railroad train" is reported in Australia, where a "tea and sugar special" makes a 1,057-mile run from Port Augusta in a week.

Herman Zeigler Is On U. S. Destroyer That Hits Mammoth Whale

Herman Zeigler of this city, who is now here on a leave from his duties as a member of the Coast Guard in the Destroyer Wellhorn C. Wood, had an unusual experience along with the other members of the crew of that boat several weeks ago, off Nantucket Point, Massachusetts.

The destroyer was progressing along about twenty-five miles an hour, when it suddenly struck some object, which caused the boat to heave up.

It was immediately discovered that the boat had struck a huge sulphur whale about ninety feet in length. The immense whale was as much surprised as the crew of the boat and attempted to upset the destroyer, then dove down into the deeper water of the Atlantic and was not seen again.

The destroyer sustained damage to the star board propellors, which made it necessary to seek the navy yard in Boston where it was several weeks undergoing repairs.

Mr. Zeigler will leave the last of the week for New London, Conn. headquarters for his boat.

THOSE ERIE COPS HAVE TAKING WAYS

ERIE, Pa., Nov. 18.—James Pyle, 32, a special policeman, was sentenced today to from two and one-half years to five years in the Western Penitentiary after pleading guilty to holding up a North Girard butcher. Pyle formerly was a boxer.

Pleading guilty to robbing a wholesalers' warehouse, Charles Gram, former policeman, today was sentenced to a term of from 18 months to three years in the Allegheny county workhouse.

An occasional leather belt is worn with a formal dinner gown. One worn with a lace gown was studded with little turquoise stars.

LANDSCAPING OF SCHOOL'S LAWN NEW OBJECTIVE

Bring Action Nearer As Faculty, Board Adopt Beautification Plan

Preliminary steps for a long-sought after improvement at the senior high school have finally been inaugurated. The new project is the improvement of the school lawn.

The work has been given the sanction of the school board. The committee members are as follows:

Mr. Butler and Mr. Casillo—Botany department.

Mrs. Elliott and Mrs. Douthett—School board.

Miss Gailey—Art Department.

Miss Maxwell, Sarah McKee and James Elder—Student Council.

Principal Orth of the high school.

Mr. Casillo and Mr. Butler have prepared a list of suitable shrubs which has been submitted to the committee. Bids have been asked for several local landscape gardeners and work will start immediately after the awarding of the contract. As may be inferred, the placing of shrubbery will constitute the major portion of the work. The shrubbery will be placed at strategic places where its value and beauty will best be brought out. It is to be hoped that future funds will carry the work to completion.

The January class of 1929, supervised by Miss White, donated the largest part of the funds for the work. Student Council added to this fund part of the receipts of several parties sponsored by them. It is due to these organizations that the improvement has been made possible and to them must be given full credit.

After the lawn has been embellished by these improvements it will present an appearance of which New Castle may well be proud.

Pick January 27th As Graduation Date; Hint Novel Program

The January class of 1933 held its first class meeting of the semester Thursday morning to begin its arrangements for commencement, scheduled for January 27, 1933.

Principal F. L. Orth announced to the class that this graduation program would be quite different, and would be in the nature of a pageant to celebrate the 250th anniversary of the landing of William Penn and of the founding of the state of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Orth also explained various other commencement activities, and asked the senior president, Thomas Stevenson, to appoint committees so that plans might be made and work started in the next couple of weeks.

The baccalaureate service date will be January 22 and the senior class play will be given on December 9, this year.

NEW BASKETBALL SEASON NEARING

The great old man, Football, has just about lived his alloted life, and is ready to give way to his successor, Basketball.

This change will take place soon in all the "temples of learning" in the country. In the senior high school the Inter-League schedule will soon be arranged and the teams formed.

This event is looked forward to by the cagers of the various groups who are anxious to put their talent into use.

TEACHER MAKES TALK

Miss Florence Shapo, a teacher at senior high school addressed Le Cercle Francais November 18. She was introduced by Pauline Manos, a member of the club.

Immediately following the address a clever little play "La Petite Chaperon," was presented by Bertha Rosen and Nicholas De Piero.

All French students are anticipating a coming lecture by Mrs. W. L. Cosel, Monday November 28. The meeting has been made possible and will be managed by the French Circle of Senior High school.

LATIN SENATORS ACTIVE

"Senatus Romanus" is the Latin organization of the high school and its membership is made up entirely of students ranking in the upper tenth in the Caesar classes, and in the upper fifth in the Cicero and Virgil class. The club endeavors to promote interest in Latin among junior and senor high school students, and every semester conducts a tournament among ninth grade Latin pupils. The Senatus Romanus members, with the aid of Miss Mary Van Divort, supervisor of the club, correct the papers, grade them, and determine the winners. The club buys and presents the medals to successful contestants in these tournaments and also to the student ranking highest in the Virgil class at the end of every semester.

At the present time, Senatus Romanus is sponsoring the illustrated lecture "Travel by Air" by Winfield Markham, to be given at the senior high school third period, November 21, and the proceeds of this lecture are to be used to buy medals for the winning competitors in the above named contests.

The officers of the club are Heber Baldwin, consul primus; Rex Rowland, consul secundus; Rose Rice, scriba; Virginia Stone, quaestor; Ione Farver, aedile.

DANCE COMES SATURDAY

Every student in the school is invited to the Choral Department dance on Saturday evening at the Y. W. C. A. gym. The proceeds of this dance will be used to aid the chorus and glee clubs to enter the Northeastern Pennsylvania Musical contest to be held next April. Committes for this dance are working hard to make it a success. Sam Dennis and Marian Wilkison are the general bosses— ticket committee, Mary McAuley, Mary C. Jackson, Elizabeth Jones, Mary Lou Hoffman, John Phillips, Paul Griffiths and Richard Swanton; decoration committee, Jane Miller, Betty Matthews, Bill Headings, Mike Lelenko: refreshments: Mary C. Jackson, Cecelia Hashelak, Ruth Wilkinson and Ruth Miller.

HEAR FURNITURE TALK

The senior girls assembled in the auditorium on Tuesday to hear an instructive talk on period furniture by Paul G. Tousley, noted interior decorator. Tousley represents the American Manufacturers of Furniture and is touring the country in the interests of the history of furniture with a comparison of the periods, and with drapery, fabrics, and rugs showed the proper combination with various types of furniture. The rest of the morning he spent in the home economics department where he allowed the girls to experiment with various groupings. There he explained more fully the art of interior decoration.

SCHOOLMEN PAY VISIT

Superintendent of Schools C. C. Green, Principal Orth and other school officials welcomed Dr. C. Valentine Kirby, state art director, and M. Claude Rosenberry, state music director, visitors from Harrisburg, when they called at the senior high school on Thursday afternoon.

Luncheon was served the schoolmen by the domestic science department of the school. Later they inspected the departments over which they preside.

OFFICE JOBS LOOM

We hope that the office force will enjoy their Thanksgiving turkey as much as possible because as soon as they return from the two day's vacation they are going to be overwhelmed with work. About 2100 students are expected to return next semester, and the same number of schedules must be made out for next year by these girls. It seems an endless task but they always have the job completed by the proper time. Students must have their election cards in the office by Wednesday, November 23. Those who intend to take a post graduate course must take four subjects, and they should take their schedules to the office also.

'SAFETY POSTERS' UP

The American Sheet and Tin Plate company is interested not only in the safety of its employees, but also it aims to teach safety to the high school students. Adorning bulletin boards of every room you will see new safety posters which have been presented by this company. Every student should observe and think about the varied subject matter used for these posters because a lesson learned now will be practiced in later life.

LIBRARY KEPT BUSY

Revealing what type of books most high school students desire, Miss Helen Westlake, school librarian, yesterday announced the following figures for the library during October.

A total of 3,200 books were circulated during the month with 1,541 of them fiction volumes; 459 literature books and 244 books of biography.

The library's attendance for the month was 16,762 students, not including the number served before and after school hours and during lunch period.

Newsboy Tells Of Being Discharged

(International News Service)

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Nov. 18.—Because he would not pay for 55 extra editions of the "progress edition," 17-year-old John Aiken, a Youngstown Telegram newsboy, lost his job, he testified at the trial of four officials of the paper on fraud charges as the state today continued its parade of witnesses.

Young Aiken said he was warned if he didn't buy the "extras" he would lose his route. He refused to pay for them and was discharged, he said. Half a dozen or so additional employes and former employes of the Telegram's circulation department were called to the stand yesterday.

Saint Elmo's Fire was the popular name of an appearance sometimes seen, especially in southern climates, during thunderstorms, of a brush or star of light at the tops of masts, spires, or other pointed objects.

When you're

Healthy, you're happy

THINK back over the last six months. The days that you were the happiest were days when health was at the peak. You can enjoy more sunshiny days. It's easier than you think.

Poor health is so often due to common constipation. Yet this condition can be banished from your life by simply eating a delicious cereal.

Laboratory investigations have proved that Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to further assist elimination. ALL-BRAN is also twice as rich in iron as an equal weight of beef liver.

This "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is similar to that in leafy vegetables. Within the body, it absorbs moisture, and gently helps to clear the system of wastes. Biological tests have demonstrated that it is mild in action.

Two tablespoonfuls of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN daily are usually sufficient. With each meal in chronic cases. If not relieved this way, consult your doctor.

Isn't this pleasant "cereal way" better than taking pills and drugs —so often harmful? Get the red-and-green package at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

"When you're healthy, you're happy"

"How you feel — and how well you look — depends largely upon the food you eat. Be sure your diet is balanced — with sufficient 'bulk' to promote regularity."

BIG ARSON RING IN OHIO BROKEN

WARREN, O., Nov. 18.—Explosions and arson fires in Youngstown, Warren and other Mahoning Valley cities are believed solved with the indictment of two local men and a resident of Toronto, O., who are in the county jail in default of $10,000 bond each on arson charges.

The prisoners are George Georges and Philip Caggigous, a boarder at Georges' home here, and Steve Karavalos of Toronto. The men were indicted in connection with the $12,000 explosion and fire which destroyed Georges' home and damaged the house adjoining.

Elisha was a prophet of Israel, who continued the movement of Elijah against the Baal cult.

Stewardship Of Money

"Brass Tacks" On The Sunday School Lesson

The Golden Text

Take heed, and keep yourself from all covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth. —Luke 12:15.

By DR. ALVIN E. BELL

(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for Nov. 20, is Deut. 8:7-18; Mal. 3:7-10; Luke 12:22-34; I Cor. 16:1-4; II Cor. 8:1-15; 9-1-15; I Tim. 6:17-19, the Golden Text being Luke 12:15, "Take heed and keep yourselves from all covetousness; for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.")

The essential thing about life and the living of it is not to be found in having, but in being, as Jesus says, "not in the abundance of things" but in the "abundant life" which he lived and taught us to live.

The peril of every period of prosperity is its tendency to induce in us the feeling of self-sufficiency and consequent ingratitude that stifles devotion to God. Therefore at the close of an era of adversity, and on the threshold of an era of prosperity, Moses, in his farewell addresses, warned God's people against allowing prosperity to improverish them spiritually: "Beware lest thou forget Jehovah thy God, in not keeping his commandments, . . . lest, when thou hast eaten and art full, and hast built goodly houses, and dwelt therein, and thy silver and thy gold is multiplied, and all that thou hast is multiplied; then thy heart be lifted up, and thou forget Jehovah thy God, who brought thee forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage."

Human nature is so unchanging as to reveal the safe relation today between prosperity and worldliness that Moses warned against. When the economic curve of our nation has risen in periods of prosperity the spiritual curve has declined. Likewise our greatest revivals and forward movements in religion have followed closely upon the heels of periods of depression that taught the people their need of God.

Stewardship vs. Ownership

Jehovah claims ownership of all things in heaven and earth. He has never transferred this title or given quit claim deed for these things to man. He is forever the owner, and man forever but his steward. Money, therefore is to be to man never an end but always a means. God is the end and money the means by which man may serve God. Refusal to acknowledge this relation is very plainly called "robbing God." "Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me . . . in tithes and offerings." To those who are faithful stewards in the matter of tithes and offerings God promises blessings akin to opening the windows of heaven for the outpouring of abounding blessings.

Spiritual vs. Material Interests

Our Lord Jesus emphasized the value of spiritual interest as abiding and satisfying. These only are of sufficient import and permanence to justify setting one's heart upon them. "Where your treasure is, there will your heart be also." He, therefore, advised spiritual investments and guaranteed satisfying returns upon those investments: "Seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you."

The Spiritual Dynamic

The spiritual incentive and dynamic for the proper stewardship of money is the cross of Christ: "Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift." In the light of that gift, every gift of ours is that of a "cheerful giver," or "hilarious" as Paul describes it. Out of appreciation of Christ's enrichment of our lives we must seek so to use the riches of this world to the good of mankind and the glory of God that we may be listed among those who are "rich in good works." Toyohiko Kagawa in Japan and Mahatma Gandhi in India are showing the world that this can be done today as Christ did it in his day.

Don't let Washboard RUBBING wear out your clothes

Rubbing clothes thin shortens their life

Chipso soaks clothes snowy—safely

Don't rub neckbands and shirtbands, and elbows and sleeves thin! RUBBING WEAKENS CLOTHES. And clothes cost money. Use Chipso—and get a snowy wash on the line early—without hard rubbing—without worry—without backaches.

Chipso suds soak out dirt! And they're SAFE for colors. SAFE for your hands. SAFE for your nicest things!

Chipso suds are thick, velvety . . . rich with good soap body that loosens grease and grime . . . gentle as rain-water to materials and colors. Chipso is SAFE. See how smooth Chipso leaves your hands, even when you use it daily for dishwashing (and aren't Chipso suds a joy for that!).

Your hands show you what fine soap Chipso is. Safe even for sheer silk stockings, lingerie, woolens—Chipso gives years' more wear to the towels and sheets . . keeps work clothes and children's clothes out of the mending basket. Get Chipso from your grocer this week.

SEVENTH WARD NEWS

Railroad Tracks Will Be Raised Several Inches

P. & L. E. Workmen Engaged In New Step Toward Station Construction

The east and west bound tracks of the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie railroad are being elevated six or eight inches to make them at a more convenient level with the proposed passenger shelter. The tracks and ties are being lifted with crowbars and the required amount of slag is being shoveled underneath.

In addition to this work, the job of removing the two switch tracks between here and the junction is proceeding. The "W. A." tower near here, as well as the buildings on the former Gaspare property, has been removed. Each of these was a step forward toward the time when the P. and L. E. passenger station will be a joint affair with the Baltimore and Ohio.

MRS. SHERMAN IS HOSTESS TO W. A. G.

Mrs. H. S. Sherman of Leasure avenue, was hostess Thursday night to the W. A. G. Club members. The evening was whiled away in a pleasing manner with card playing.

Special guests of the occasion were Mrs. E. M. Jones, Mrs. J. C. Conn, Mrs. C. F. Perrine and Mrs. W. D. Logan.

The club planned to have a Christmas party in the form of a tureen dinner at the home of Mrs. W. E. Weitz, West Madison avenue, on Thursday evening, December 15.

CASE OF MEASLES IN SEVENTH WARD

L. S. Hoon, city sanitary officer, who spent a part of Thursday making the rounds of seventh ward, reports that there is just one case of contagion in this part of the city at the present time. He reports that Joseph Isaac, of 901 North Liberty street is afflicted with a case of the measles.

O. R. C. MEETING

Thursday afternoon's meeting of the O. R. C. auxiliary was devoted to business of a routine nature. Nothing unusual marked the meeting, although quite a lot of business was disposed of. The meeting was well attended.

The next meeting will take place Thursday afternoon, December 1.

CIRCLE TEAM WINS

Circle lumber company bowling team won two games out of three played with the Liberty bowlers Wednesday night. The totals favored the Liberty team, however. Liberty 2733 and Circle, 2728.

Next Wednesday night the locals will meet the Castle bowling team.

CLOCK IS ADDED

Mahoningtown branch library is now equipped with a clock and the patrons will now know how much time they are reading away. The clock is a small one of the alarm variety.

Observations In 7th Ward

Snapshots taken around town in an afternoon's roaming:

Double door inside B. and O. station kept locked now because of more frequent railroad robberies being reported...J. H. Hossler describing the size of a couple squirrels brought back from the Piedmont farm district by P. G. Reed and R. H. Thornburg...Three men searching for a fourth "rum" player at the pool room...Young Solomon and Culbertson endeavoring to solve a puzzle picture. They had a bet they could get it together in half hour. Worked two hours on it...Captain of fire department looking over the lettuce crop in the department's garden...Fire department minus one "rum" player also...Officer Frank Reynolds on this beat now, replacing Officer Nick Caiazza for two weeks...Mahoning school youngsters talking about Thanksgiving vacation...Ed. Cox trying to think of a better name than "Cleo" for his dog...And so on up the street.

STATZER AUXILIARY

A meeting of Augusta Statzer auxiliary to Railroad Trainmen will take place Monday evening in the Clendenin building. The meetings are conducted regularly twice monthly.

L. S. C. BOOK CLUB

The L. S. C. Book Club will be entertained this evening at the home of Mrs. Joseph Gilmore, North Cedar street.

VERY QUIET HERE

October and November have been slow months in Mahoningtown in the excitement line. Alderman H. G. Coates has not had one case to report and this indicates that things have been equally quiet for Constable Joe Russo and the city police officers of the district. All in all it looks like the citizens of seventh ward are setting a record for good behavious. And that is a record of which any community is proud.

SEVENTH WARD PERSONALS

Mrs. Winifred Maher of Cleveland, O., spent Thursday with local friends.

Jesse Huff, Jr., of Young street, was back at work here Thursday after a few days illness.

Mrs. C. M. Frost, of Seventh street, has returned home from Jamestown, Pa., where she had been taking care of her mother, who was ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Horseman, formerly of this city, now of Slippery Rock, visited Mrs. Walter Waid, West Clayton street, Thursday night.

William Stubbs of West Madison avenue is spending the rest of the week at Enon Valley with friends. He is enjoying several days hunting.

Noted Colored Leader Speaks Here Thursday

Gives Insight Into What Is Being Done To Advance Colored Race

The Second Baptist church, West North street, was filled to capacity by both colored and white people last night at the rally held under the auspices of the local branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

The principal speaker of the evening was Roy Wilkins, assistant secretary of the association, who spoke at some length on the problems of the colored race and just what is being done to aid the race to secure all its rights under the constitution.

He said among other things that the colored race should no longer be labeled as Republicans or Democrats or any other party but should be independent in their voting, so that they, like other racail groups, might obtain their just place in the management of the country. He said that the colored race under the leadership of the N. A. A. C. P. was not seeking favors but only their just rights.

Dr. James A. Gillespie was chairman of the evening. The first speaker of the evening was Mayor Charles B. Mayne, whose remarks were received with enthusiasm. Other speakers of the evening were William J. Eroe, Jr., assemblyman-elect from the New Castle district; Miss Elsie Calvin, a high school teacher, and H. K. Bell.

The invocation at the opening of the meeting was given by Rev. William M. McPherson of Bethel A. M. E. church, while Rev. B. G. Shaw of St. Luke's A. M. E. Zion church gave the benediction. Several fine selections were rendered by the community chorus directed by Arthur Thomas.

Vote Recount At Steubenville Is Requested Today

(International News Service)

STEUBENVILLE, O., Nov. 18.—With only 510 votes difference between the totals out of nearly 100,000 votes cast, a recount of 40 precincts in Jefferson and Belmont county was to be started today at the request of Congressman Frank Murphy.

Judge Lawrence Imhoff, Murphy's successful Democratic opponent, carried all 40 of the contested precincts by large pluralities. Friends believe enough errors in counting will be found in the 40 precincts to make up the 510 vote deficit and re-elect Murphy.

Emma M. Nutt, probably the first "hello girl" of history entered the service of the telephone company in Boston, Sept. 1, 1878.

William Ellery of Rhode Island was one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence.

LOCAL MAN'S AUTO STOLEN IN OHIO

T. K. Crist, manager of the Personal Finance Company office here, is still minus his almost new car, which was stolen from Judson avenue, Youngstown, while he was on a visit in that city one night recently. Mr. Crist drove over and left his machine parked on that street. When he went to get it to return here, it was gone. The Youngstown police have been making an effort ever since to locate the missing machine, but have so far been unsuccessful.

Amy Johnson Is Nearing Finish Of Long Flight

English Woman Flier Reported Sighted Only 800 Miles From Capetown

(International News Service)

CAPETOWN, Nov. 18.—The plane in which Amy Johnson is seeking to establish a record flight between England and Capetown (correct) was sighted over Walvis Bay, 800 miles from here, at 8 a. m. today, according to reports received here.

(International News Service)

London, Nov. 18.—Amy Johnson, Britain's premier aviatrix attempting a record breaking flight from England to Capetown, should reach her destination by 2 p. m. (London time) today, her husband, Capt. J. A. Mollison, told International News Service.

Miss Johnson is making the flight in the hope of breaking the record set by her husband last March.

He added his wife had taken off from Mossamedes in the moonlight late last night, hoping to reach Capetown, 1,300 miles away, in a single hop.

Reports from Capetown said large crowds had gathered at the airport there already.

South Side Sets Record For Book Reading Tuesday

Over 900 Books Borrowed From South Side Library In One Day

Not in the east side, west side or all around the town are there as many books read as in the south side. That is the only conclusion that can be reached after glancing over the circulation figures compiled in the New Castle public library's branch offices. Almost invariably the South Side branch reports the largest circulation.

Then there are times like last Tuesday when the South Side library surpasses even its own records. Miss Alice Sterling, librarian, reports the number of books borrowed from there on that day was 921. This jump in book borrowing was partly due to the library being closed on the Friday preceding, that being Armistice Day.

Although there were more adult books borrowed that day, the children's books were close runners-up. The adult circulation was 465 and children's, 456.

Central Christian Revival Continues

Nightly the Central Christian church is filled, with the pastor, Rev. C. W. Johnstone, preaching eloquent and heart reaching evangelistic sermons.

This evening he has chosen an unusual subject for his sermon. He will speak on "A Corpseless Funeral" and will speak as a minister should speak at a funeral, when they can forget the bereaved relatives. The sermon promises much of interest.

The song service will be featured by a solo number by Mrs. June Bernard, and a duet by Mrs. Bernard and Lewis Johns.

Captain Hamilton Much Improved

Local Man With French Foreign Legion Is Recovering From Wound

Captain Edgar Guerard Hamilton of the French Foreign Legion, who was severely injured several months ago in a battle in Morocco, is according to recent letters, somewhat improved.

He is still located at the French Military Hospital at Casablanca, Morocco, but is now sufficiently recovered to go out of the institution and visit with friends in the place.

It will be some time before he is discharged from the care of the hospital and he may be transferred to another military hospital in or near Paris for special treatment on the jaw, which was badly shattered.

Police Called To Shenango Pottery

A resident of the district in the vicinity of the Shenango Pottery was awakened about two o'clock this morning, by the sounding of an alarm bell in the plant. He thought it was a burglar alarm and called the police. Officers arrived in a short time and found that it was the bell on the water line of the sprinkling system of the plant, which is installed to prevent fires.

ASK VETERANS TO REPORT FOR WORK

Veterans who registered for employment on state roadway projects and who have not as yet been given employment are asked to report to the office of the Lawrence county chapter, American Red Cross, at once.

More work is available for veterans at the present time, it is stated.

Water Company To Repair Street

Council met this morning in council chambers, city hall and having inspected Court street between Dickson street and Crawford avenue, instructed the City of New Castle Water company to restore to its former condition a section where the company had made repairs to their service.

The company had repaired the street. It was believed satisfactory. A complaint was registered with the city and council viewed the section.

Council gave the company the authority to close the street between the affected points while the work is under way.

Utility Probers Will Delve Into Giant Power Case

Purchase Of Clarion River Power Company Will Be Investigated

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Nov. 18—The senate utility searchlight today was to play upon another phase of public service company operations — the Philadelphia Electric's purchase of the Clarion River Power company, a transaction nullified by the federal power commission.

The Pennslyvania Electric is another corporation woven into the finely spun network of the associated gas and electric system and the committee hoped to learn more about these interlocking operations through questioning of J. I. Mange, who was scheduled to appear as a witness today. Mange is president of the electric company as well as the Metropolitan Edison company.

W. A. Reiber of Johnstown, also an official of the Pennsylvania Electric company, and J. H. Bucher of Reading, of the Metropolitan Edison, were listed as other witnesses for today.

Before they begin their testimony, Charles Nodder, federal trade commission expert, was to conclude his review of the federal inquiry into the associated gas and electric system. Nodder was on the stand for two days and hoped to complete his testimony this morning.

Attorney Oliver K. Eaton, counsel for the senate committee, pressed Nodder for his views as to how consumers of electricity are affected by the practices of elaborate holding company systems, but the federal expert said he was unable to answer the question without making a study and comparison of rates.

Dr. W. E. McClure To Preach On Letter

Evening Services Will Be Marked With A Reply To An Anonymous Letter Received

Dr. W. E. McClure, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, says: "Perhaps no one receives more anonymous letters than the preacher. Especially is this true around election time, if the preacher happens to take his stand on some important moral and political issue."

Sunday night Dr. McClure proposes to read a very interesting letter which was addressed to him, but not signed. He will both read the letter and reply to it; then he will preach a strictly Biblical sermon on the theme "How Jesus Elected Leaders".

At the morning session his theme will be "When the Devil Was Foiled". Both of these messages will be of the Bible teaching variety and come in the series on the great experiences in the life of Jesus.

Dr. McClure invites his enemies as well as his friends to hear these sermons. One of the chorus choirs of the church will assist with the singing at the evening service.

AUXILIARY MEETS.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Earl J. Watt Post American Legion, held a very interesting meeting Monday evening in the Legion Home. Mrs. James Weisen and Mrs. Roy Kerr were elected delegates to attend the Four County Council meeting, on Thursday, November 17, at Butler, Pa. Plans were also made for holding a Christmas party early in December, with the American Legion members as guests. The next meeting will be held Tuesday evening, November 29 instead of the regular Monday evening, on account of the National Commander's banquet held in the Cathedral at New Castle.

LEGION PARTY.

The second of a series of card parties planned by the Ladies Auxiliary was held Tuesday evening at the Legion Home with a very nice number in attendance. Ten tables of bridge were enjoyed. Prizes being won by Mrs. Elta Good, of Enon, and Lewis Wallace of New Castle. Also twelve tables of 500 found a part of the evening's program. Prizes being awarded to Mrs. Frank Kelly of Bessemer and James Findley of Mt. Jackson. The door prize was won by Samuel Gibson. Later in the evening a delicious lunch was served by the committee.

TO ATTEND CONVENTION.

Among those who will attend the regular fall convention of Y. P. C. U. societies of Beaver Valley Presbytery, held in the U. P. church at Ellwood City, Saturday afternoon and evening are: Margaret and James Keane, Margaret Lowry, Nora Hodge, Lucille Meanor, Katherine Bair, Almyra Pitts, Robert Byler, Gertrude and Myrtle McConnell, Eleanor and Margaret Craig.

TAXPAYER'S LEAGUE MEETS.

A meeting of the Justice Taxpayers League was held Monday evening in the local high school auditorium and was well attended. The meeting was addressed by C. H. Akens and C. H. Milholland of New Castle, who gave interesting explanation of taxation costs. The North Beaver group has been organized within the last month. Mr. D. W. Woods is president of this unit.

MT. JACKSON NOTES.

MORE SENATORS FLOP ON PROHIBITION ISSUE

Vandenberg Is Latest To Turn

Declares Recent Vote Of State Is Mandate From Constituents

NUMEROUS SENATORS ALREADY FLOPPED

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18—The crash of holdover senators, flopping from the dry cause to the liberal side of the prohibition issue sounded like a cannonading on Capitol Hill today.

The latest to endorse prohibition reform was Senator Arthur Vandenberg (R) of Michigan, formerly regarded as one of the outstanding constitutional drys in the senate. He declared the action of Michigan voters in repealing their state dry law was a mandate to him to vote for liberalization of the Volstead Act and submission of a resolution to the states, proposing repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment.

Some More Floppers.

By his switch, Vandenberg joined an army of former dry senators, who abandoned the prohibition cause as a result of the tremendous wet majorities in the recent election. This group made the change without submitting their own views to their constituents. It included such prominent leaders in both parties as Reed (R) of Pennsylvania, Robinson (D) of Arkansas, Harrison (D) of Mississippi, Couzens (R) of Michigan, Ashurst (D) of Arizona, and Fess (R) of Ohio.

The group, before very long, will include also such party spokesmen as McNary (R) of Oregon, McKellar (D) of Tennessee, Byrnes (D) of South Carolina, Glass (D) of Virginia, Patterson (R) of Missouri, and Swanson (D) of Virginia. All of these senators—from Reed to Swanson—either voted against legalizing beer or against consideration of a repeal resolution in the last session of congress. They will be on the other side of the prohibition fence at the December session.

The liberals do not need their votes to modify the Volstead Act—but all would be welcome in the fight to repeal or change the 18th Amendment. This would result from the constitutional provision, requiring a two-thirds vote for submission of constitutional changes—whereas but a majority vote is necessary to change the Volstead Act.

Dr. E. B. Russell Talks At Highland

Program On Books And Good Literature Is Carried Out In Thursday's Meeting

Dr. E. B. Russell, of the chair of history and government at Westminster College, was the speaker Thursday evening when the members and friends of Highland Parent-Teacher Association met for the monthly session. He had as his subject "Books and Good Reading" and his discourse was interesting and educational.

Mrs. C. H. Young presided at the meeting and Miss Pearl Hutchison presented a number of pupils from grade 4 B in a broadcast sketch, composed by herself. They gave "Our Favorite Book Characters" in a most clever manner.

Miss Helen Allen, teacher of music, presented twenty pupils of grade 5 B in "Going to the Fair," "Who Knows" and "November's Feast," a group of songs.

A past president's pin was presented to Mrs. H. W. McKee, Mrs. J. E. Elliott making the presentation speech.

Mrs. J. E. Elliott, chairman of the carnival committee, announced that the postponed carnival entertainment would be held in the school Friday, December 2, with the same program carried out as had been previously planned.

The next regular meeting of the Association will be in the form of a Christmas party.

Men Have Program At Almira Home

The residents of the Almira Home were given a most delightful evening Thursday when the members of the Men's Bible class of the First Baptist church, accompanied by Dr. G. S. Bennett, pastor of the First Christian church, assembled to conduct a prayer service.

Special orchestra music and vocal numbers by the chorus and solos by Dave Williams and Les Rodgers featured the song service and Dr. Bennett spoke on "All Alone".

The Men's Bible class plan on having a donation day Sunday in their class, with each man bringing what he can in the line of edibles, and these will be distributed among the needy members of the class.

No More Piles

How to End Terrible Agony Without Salves or Cutting

Thousands of Pile sufferers do not know that the cause of Piles is internal—bad circulation of blood in the lower bowel.

That is the scientific truth about Piles—the real reason why salves and suppositories do not give permanent relief, why cutting does not remove the cause.

Your itching, bleeding or protruding Piles will only go when you actually remove the cause—and not one minute before. External treatments can't do this—an internal medicine should be used. HEM-ROID, the prescription of Dr. J. S. Leonhardt, succeeds because it stimulates the circulation, drives out congested blood, heals and restores the almost dead parts.

HEM-ROID has such a wonderful record of success in even the most stubborn cases that Eckerd's Cut Rate and New Castle Drug Co. and all good druggists advise every sufferer to get a bottle of HEM-ROID Tablets today. They must end your Pile agony or money back.

Will Aid Banks Recently Suspended

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The Cleveland regional office of the Reconstruction Finance Corp., today was instructed to do everything in its power to aid the banks in Pittsburgh recently forced to suspend. The instructions to the Cleveland officials also were to call on the R. F. C. here for any information and assistance desired in endeavoring to so straighten out the affairs of the suspended banks that they can reopen as quickly as possible.

Asks Physicians To Remove His Eye

(International News Service)

DETROIT, Nov. 18.—"I want one of the doctors to take my eye out," casually announced Willaim Sharpe, 24, to attaches at Receiving hospital here.

"Don't look so surprised. It's just a glass eye. It gets worn out every once in a while and breaks. Then I have a terrible time getting the pieces out."

Physicians complied with his request and Sharpe departed to purchase a new optic.

Sabbath School Convention Held

District Of Mt. Jackson Has Sabbath School Convention In Hillsville Church

One of the best conventions ever held in Mt. Jackson District was the consensus of opinion of those attending the Mt. Jackson District of the Lawrence County Sabbath School Association Convention, on Thursday afternoon, November 17, at the Hillville Methodist Episcopal church.

At the afternoon session Rev. R. M. Haverfield, pastor of the Westfield Presbyterian church and chairman of the program committee, presided and the opening worship service was conducted by Miss Alice Grimes, County Young People's superintendent.

After the business of the afternoon, greetings were extended from the county officers, those responding being Robert M. Strickler, Jr., the county president, who gave a brief review of the state convention at Lancaster and congratulated the Mt. Jackson district secretary, Mary Kelso, for the splendid minutes, and the treasurer, Frank Beal, for being treasurer of one of the three 100 per cent districts; Miss Alice Grimes the County Young People's superintendent who briefly reviewed plans for a district council and Rev. R. M. Haverfield who gave a report of the Christian Education work and stated there were practically 345 young folks of Lawrence County receiving Bible instruction in the week-day schools.

Three assembly conferences were held, the first one being on Bible School Administration, under the leadership of Q. E. Davy, superintendent of the Mahoning M. E. Sunday School. Dr. Davey gave an interesting review of his nine years experience as a Sabbath School superintendent, and brought out a number of the problems with which he had to contend and an open discussion followed.

At this time the matter of Standard "B" was discussed, as the County President had mentioned in his brief talk that this was one of the outstanding matters brought forward at the State Convention in Lancaster.

The second conference was under the leadership of Gerald Nord of the Bessemer Presbyterian Sabbath School, who gave an interesting review of the Sabbath School curriculum, which showed that he was thoroughly familiar with the modern approved materials available. An open discussion followed.

The last conference period was conducted by Rev. George W. Neill, pastor of the Bethel U. P. church, and Rev. Neill gave an unusually timely and inspiring talk on this very necessary phase of Sabbath school work.

The benediction was pronounced by Rev. W. J. Engel, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Bessemer, and the ladies of the Hillsville church served a splendid meal to the visiting delegates.

Evening Session

The evening session was presided over by the newly elected vice president, H. G. McCurley, since the newly elected president, A. W. Leslie, was unable to be present due to a recent accident.

The devotionals were in charge of Rev. Robert Hamill, pastor of the Mt. Jackson U. P. church, and the installation of officers was conducted by the county president, Mr. Strickler.

The officers installed were: president, A. W. Leslie; vice president, H. G. McCurley; secretary, Mary Kelso; treasurer, Frank Beal; children's division superintendent, Mrs. W. J. Douglass; home department superintendent, Mrs. C. Bonnett; teacher training superintendent, Mrs. R. W. Barris; Temperance superintendent, S. A. Cowden; adult division superintendent, A. H. Fullerton; young people's division superintendent, John Kyle; missions superintendent, Rev. Robt. Hamill; administrative superintendent, P. W Griffith; parent training superintendent, Rev. W. J. Engle and religious training superintendent, Rev. Ross M. Haverfield.

Special music was furnished by the Bethel U. P. church, which was followed by a beautiful violin solo by a member of the Bessemer Presbyterian church.

The address of the evening was delivered by Rev. D. L. Ferguson, pastor of the Highland U. P. church of New Castle, Pa., and his message was unusually inspiring and instructive. This was Rev. Ferguson's first appearance before the Mt. Jackson district and the members of the District heartily welcomed him as one of the pastors of Lawrence county.

After the quartet from the Edenburg Christian church had given one of their delightful numbers, the benediction was pronounced by Rev. Elmer O. Minnigh, pastor of the convention church.

The church selected for the next convention was the Bethel United Presbyterian.

Seek Federal Aid To Block Spread Of Blister Rust

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Federal aid in the prevention of the spread of blister rust, a disease which destroys trees, has been asked by the American Forestry Association.

The blister rust situation constitutes an emergency of national concern in America's inland empire—Idaho, Montanna, Washington and Oregon—the association declared.

Urging immediate control of the disease, both to save the American white pine forests and also to provide employment to forest workers, the association said:

"The effect of the disease will be far reaching upon forestry and the lumber industry throughout the United States. Protection work should be done immediately on the basis of an eight year program which provide labor to many.

FALSE ALARM IS SOUNDED LAST NIGHT

Firemen were called to Sampson street at 12:30 last evening by a false alarm from Box 69.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The biological survey is out to kill several million rats by January 1.

The campaign will concentrate in 190 counties of eastern states, where rates have become a real problem. County agricultural agents will distribute the poison, which the biological survey will supply.

The average loss from rats is $40 per farm, it is estimated. The drive which is now starting will cost $30,000 but the government believes the saving resulting from rat-riddance will be $1,200,000.

Pity the Ball

Community Bible Classes At Y. W. Commence Tuesday

Dr. G. S. Bennett, Teacher, Explains Purpose Of Course In Bible

The Tuesday night classes in Bible, taught by Dr. G. S. Bennett pastor of the First Christian church, and sponsored by the Religious Education committee of the Y. W. C. A. of which Mrs. James Blackwood is chairman, will be launched next Tuesday night in the Y. W. C. A.

An organization meeting of the class was conducted last Tuesday night. Together they decided upon the following course of study, herein explained by Dr. Bennett.

"The purpose of this course is to find out, as far as possible, the background of life at the time of Christ. We believe that in order to understand more accurately the teachings of Christ and of the Apostles it is necessary to know something about the conditions of the times in which they lived. In this course of study we shall discuss the historical, political, social, literary and the religious conditions in the world in the years preceding the coming of Jesus.

Later in the course we shall discuss the origin of the various books of the New Testament seeking to find out all we can about the author of the book, his purpose in writing, to whom it was written, and the message."

The class will be conducted from 7:15 to 8:15. Anyone of the community of any church denomination may attend. There were 60 present last time.

ROBERT SMITH IS AWARDED AUTOMOBILE

In case of R. M. Campbell guardian ad litem for Robt. Smith against the Community Savings and Loan Company, which was tried before Judge James A. Chambers, a verdict in favor of the plaintiff was rendered. The suit involved the ownership of an automobile which had been levied upon as the property of Archie Smith and which Robert Smith claimed that he had bought before the levy. The verdict gives the car to Robert Smith.

ROAMING

With Richards

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle.

With little of the usual ballyhoo and fanfare, Thanksgiving seems about to descend upon us and there's nothing much to be done about it. Heretofore we've had some warning from the shopwindows and the ads but this year there seems to have been a conspiracy to let the day slip in and out without a guide.

The one sign that it is near is the activity of the gentlemen in the butchering profession, who remind you that turkeys are going to be cheap this year, as cheap as ordinary meat almost and what about sending up a fifteen pound gobbler for the dinner.

Turkey prices, if you don't know, are down this year, down where some of us ordinary mortals might even think of havng a little for Thanksgiving dinner. The price this year is 25 cents per pound on the hoof which means about 30 to 35 raw.

We have never been listed among the prudes who believed in calling a spade an agricultural implement for fear of offending the esthetic tastes of the customers, so we can't be charged with much of that crime. But after reading some of the current books, which for want of a better name can be listed as contemporaneous literature, it looks as though it isn't going to be long until we run smack dab into a censureship law that will curb some of the prurient pens of the country.

After reading some of the "best sellers" one feels the need of some disinfectant and a bath. Apparently anything goes these days in the writing of a book and under the guise of "realism" some of the world's worst drivel is dished out, garnished in language that would be in order at a longshoreman's Saturday night drinking bout.

The bridge at Willow Grove is almost ready. A little dry weather so the approaches can be put in, and the bridge will be ready for somebody to break a bottle of something or other over sides. The old bridge is torn out, and within a short time you'll forget there ever was such a crossing.

This split week for bird hunting seems to have caught the fancy of the pheasant and grouse. On the days they are safe from the hunters' guns, hunters claim you have to kick them out of your road. On the days shooting is permitted, the woods are as empty as the streets of Glasgow on a tag day.

And down on the New Castle Junction road, concrete is rolling out in a constant stream. The contractors in charge of the work may not finish it all this winter, but from the way they are stepping on the accelerator now, just an ordinary break in the weather would let them out before spring.

Report Turkeys Are Plentiful

Turkeys are living on "borrowed time" and it will not be long until they adorn the Thanksgiving day dinner table.

Turkeys are plentiful this year and the price isn't going to be as high as last year, it is reported.

Some marketeers will sell 'em full dressed and "hog dressed."

Many of the marketeers here are purchasing Lawrence county grown turkeys and they report flocks plentiful.

Mountain Beauties Fight At Church Door Over Man

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Nov. 18.—Revival services in the Brethren church at Markleysburg failed to have the desired effect upon two young women of that place, who, within a minute after leaving the edifice engaged in a fist fight.

The aggressor was Miss Evelyn Fearer, 19, well-known mountain girl.

Miss Edna Rishel, 23, equally well know was her antagonist,. They fought over the affections of a man. Miss Richel was arrested.

"Guess they'll soak me for the costs, but it was worth it to sock that dame," she declared.

WOMAN RIPS OFF CONSTABLE'S SHIRT

WASHINGTON, Pa., Nov. 18.—Bessie McDonald, amazon of Canton township, who almost disrobed Constable H. C. Miller of this city in a fracas in the office of Justice Glenn Wonsettler, was found not guilty of an assault charge brought by the officer, but was ordered to pay the costs. The woman started to disrupt proceedings. Constable Miller tried to quiet her and she ripped his shirt and undershirt from his torso, and Miller blushed.

ROOSEVELT'S MARGIN IN BEAVER 54 VOTES

BEAVER, Pa., Nov. 18.—Official count of the vote, completed today, shows that Beaver county was carried by Roosevelt over Hoover by 54 votes. The Democrats polled 19,805 and President Hoover 19,751.

Lawrence H. Rupp, Democratic candidate for United States senator, received 19,048, to 18,405 for Senator James J. Davis.

Guy J. Wadlinger will speak on the banquet, which will attract a number from the Pittsburgh district to New Castle on November 28, the local banquet in honor of National Commander Louis A. Johnson, being the only one scheduled for Western Pennsylvania this year.

BOY SCOUTS

PLAN CAMP SESSION.

The Lawrence County Council Boy Scouts of America today announced the Part 1 Elements of Scoutmastership leader training course which will be held November 19 and 20 at Camp John M. Phillips. Great interest is shown in this course by registrations of many leaders from the New Castle and Ellwood City Districts and other communities in the county. This course is the first requirement in the Five Year Program and a number of new leaders have enrolled for it to start their work on their Five Year Key Degrees.

Students will arrive at camp about 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, November 19. Scoutmaster Irwin Ropp of New Bedford, a veteran leader, will be in charge of the course as senior patrol leader and will be assisted by four other veteran leaders. The course will close on Sunday afternoon, November 20, at 3 o'clock.

This course is especially for new troop leaders and any man interested in joining Scouting may enroll in this course by calling Boy Scout Headquarters 5477.

COURT OF HONOR.

New Castle District Court of Honor will be held Tuesday evening, November 22. All applications for awards must be in scout headquarters not later than Saturday, November 19.

VERDICT RENDERED FOR THE PLAINTIFF

In the case of the Universal Sales company, use of the Central Acceptance company, against William Stepanov and the Universal Sales company, which was tried before Judge Chambers, a verdict was rendered in favor of the Central Acceptance company, plaintiff, against the Universal Sales company for $250. The suit was one involving the sale and financing of a tractor.

Disorderly House Raided By Police

Proprietor And Nine Visitors And Inmates Are Arrested

City police officers last night, armed with a search warrant, visited the place of Thomas Hanlon on the second floor of the old post office building, 42½ South Mercer street, arresting the proprietor, one inmate and eight visitors and a considerable quantity of beer.

Three of the visitors, a man and two women, put up ten dollar forfeits and did not appear for a hearing this morning before the mayor.

Mayor Charles B. Mayne was not disposed to fool this morning, when the balance of the group appeared before him. Hanlon, charged with being the keeper of a disorderly house, was assessed a fine of $100 with the alternative of 100 days in the county jail. Wanda Hanna listed as an inmate was given the alternative of a $25 fine or twenty-five days in jail. Five visitors, three men and two women, were assessed fines of $10 or ten days in jail.

With three exceptions, not including the proprietor and inmate, all went to jail. They were all seeking the money to get out.

The liquor was dumped before the officers could get to it, but 74 bottles of beer were confiscated. Quite a number of empty liquor bottles and other containers were found in the place.

Garage Entered And Articles Taken

R. A. Fleming, 1222 East Washington street, made a report late Thursday that his garage had been entered during the previous night and quite a number of articles taken.

Police investigated and found that entrance had apparently been gained with a key, which was used in unlocking the lock of the place.

Among the articles taken was pipe dies values at $25; saws, planes, drill bits, fishing outfit valued at $25; and an old muzzle loading rifle.

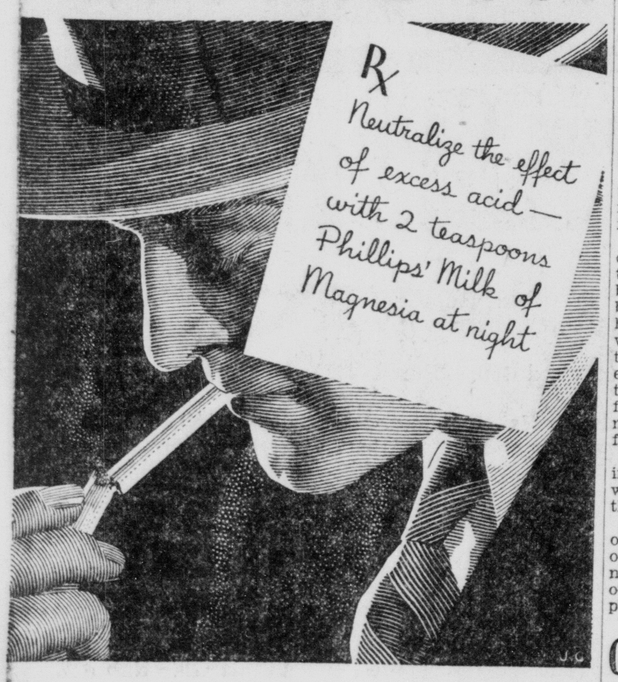
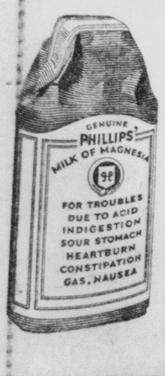
KEEPING FIT





Indulgence in rich foods, tobacco, or anything else that piles up acid in the system should be offset with a little Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. This neutralizes the acidity and you feel fine. Plenty of men know there is nothing like it for "mornings after." Get the genuine; there's something about the Phillips formula, and the way Phillips' is made. Substitutes don't act the same.

ALSO IN TABLET FORM: Phillips' Milk of Magnesia Tablets are now on sale at drug stores everywhere. Each tiny tablet is the equivalent of a teaspoonful of genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia.

YOU CAN TAKE THE WORD OF Pennsylvania

"IT'S A BETTER MOTOR FUEL"

There are two good ways to choose a motor fuel:

One is to take the advice of people who drive a lot . . . people who know fuels because they use them under all kinds of driving conditions. If you do this, you'll quickly come to ATLANTIC WHITE FLASH . . . because Pennsylvania motorists buy more than twice as much ATLANTIC WHITE FLASH as any other gasoline; overwhelming proof of the extra qualities they find in this great fuel.

There's another way that is even better; and that's to test the motor fuel for yourself . . . in your own car.

Change to ATLANTIC WHITE FLASH for at least two weeks. See how quickly it flashes into action, even on the coldest mornings. Note how seldom you have to use the costly choke. Test it for pick-up at traffic-lights; for speed on the straightaway; for power on the hills.

You can take the word of Pennsylvania, or you can prove it for yourself: "ATLANTIC WHITE FLASH is a better motor fuel."

Woman And Man Held In Slaying Of Shamokin Man

Murder Charges Will Be Heard By Grand Jury Next Month, Indicated

(International News Service)

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Nov. 18.—Murder charges against Mrs. Mary Stankiewicz, 49, and Clem Kiselesski, 52, will be heard by the grand jury next month, District Attorney Robert K. Fortney announced here today.

The woman pleaded guilty when arraigned after signing a confession. Kiselesski, crippled step-son of the victim, pleaded not guilty. They are accuse dof bludgeoning to death the woman's seventy-year-old husband, Jacob.

Motive Not Known

Kiselesski is not the natural son of either Mrs. Stankiewicz or of the slain man.

Though implying he knew the motive for the brutal killing, Fortney refused to disclose it today. He indicated the einvestigation was not complete and another arrest was sought.

Would Put State Employes Salaries Back To 1913 Level

(International News Service)

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Nov. 18—Salaries of state employes would be returned to the scale in effect in 1913 under a legislative program prepared today by the executive committee of the tax justice league of Pennsylvania for submission to the 1933 legislature.

The executive committee also drafted a series of bills designed to shift the burden of taxation from real estate to other sources and to effect economies in the operation of the state government through the abolition of smaller bureaus.

Large Crowd Of Boys And Girls At Story Hour

Story hour at the public library was divided into three different groups yesterday in order that each of the 148 youngsters who flocked to the building could hear the tales spun by Alice Joyce, children's librarian.

Miss Joyce told them three stories—"Clever Peter," "The Old Woman and the Tramp" and "The Giant With No Heart in His Body." The boys and girls were intrigued with the tales and listened with wide-open eyes. Once the stories were underway a pin could have been heard dropping in the story hour room.

Venango County Merchants See Business Upturn

Oil City And Franklin Merchants See Better Business Ahead For 1933

(International News Service)

OIL CITY, Pa., Nov. 18.—A more encouraging outlook for manufacturing with a definite, although slight, upturn early in the new year today was the consensus of opinion of members of the Oil City-Franklin club at their annual reunion here.

Traffic experts and railroad officials from Erie, Cleveland, Youngstown, Pittsburgh and other points in the tri-state area attended the gathering. F. R. Hammerlee, Franklin, was elected president to succeed George W. Ebert of Oil City.

Waynesburg Girls Will Hold Dance

Men Will Be Banished From Dance, Girls To Dress Up As Boys

(International News Service)

WAYNESBURG, Pa., Nov. 18—Men students at Waynesburg College will be useless, unwanted and taboo about the campus here tonight, for, this is the night of the co-eds prom and the girl's are going to supply their own "dates."

Half the co-eds at the dance will be dressed as boys; the other half as girls. Each 'boy" must bring a girl escort.

The dance was started several years ago by the co-eds as a protest against the men students who frequently took girls not attending school to college functions.

How To Get Relief From Catarrh

If you have catarrh, catarrhal deafness or head noises caused by catarrh, you should know this simple home treatment which frequently overcomes these distressing conditions. Secure from Eckerd's, of New Castle, Inc., or your druggist one ounce of Parmint (Double Strength). Take this home and add to it ¼ pint hot water and a little sugar.

Take one tablespoonful four times a day, breathing should become easier, while the distressing catarrhal head noises, dropping mucous and defective hearing should gradually disappear under Parmint's tonic action. Catarrh sufferers find Parmint just what they need.

Seek King For Arbitrator In Big Milk War

Pittsburgh Milk Dealers And Farmers Would Like To Get Dr. King Interested

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 18—Another attempt to obtain Dr. Clyde L. King chairman of the Public Service commission, as arbitrator in the milk price dispute between dealers and farmers in the Pittsburgh district will be made within the next two or three weeks, it was learned today.

Dr. King was quoted from Harrisburg this week as saying he had not been approached to arbitrate the local disagreement although officials of the Dairymen's Co-operative Sales Company had announced that he was to settle the matter several days ago.

A price of eight cents a quart for milk delivered and seven cents a quart at stores was agreed upon last week. Farmers, wholesalers, and distrbutors all join in claiming that price is too low to insure a fair profit.

Over One Hundred In Pittsburgh Are Ousted From Jobs

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 18.—Meeting secretly, the county board of commissioners has discharged 100 holdovers from the previous regime, it was learned today. Most of the workers were laborers.

Most important of the changes was the replacement of Lawrence Finert, chief lieutenant of David B. Roberts, Hill District leader. Finert recently was found not guilty of election fraud charges.

City Registers 500 Workmen

Will Be Employed On Curb Work When Washington Street Is Improved

Five hundred unemployed were registered by Charles O'Brien, city streets department clerk, Thursday afternoon.

They registered at the Toolhouse, North Croton Ave. Numbers from 1 to 500, inclusive were issued.

After the five hundredth number was issued the registration ended for the day.

More than 500 men, however, desired to register but it was believed that there would not be sufficient work for more than 500 men.

The men registered yesterday will do the curb work when Washington street is widened and repaved between County Line and Ray streets.

It is expected that the curb work will start Monday morning.

Black and red are favored colors for fall wear, as demonstrated at a fashion parade of young society women recently held in Montreal, Canada.

On an average, a hen's egg is 2.27 inches in length and 1.72 inches in diameter, or width, at the broadest point, and weights approximately two ounces.

Figures Reveal Business Better In Pennsylvania

Still Below Level Of 1931, But There Is Gradual Picking Up

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 18—Business in Pennsylvania is picking up, but is still below the 1932 level, according to statistics released today by the Philadelphia Federal reserve bank.

The report, which covers the September-October period reveals:

Factory employment increased 5 per cent.

Wage payments increased 8 per cent.

Wage payments are 19 per cent better than in July.

October employment increased 9 per cent over July.

Employment as a whole, however, is 13 per cent below that of last year.

Rheumatism Goes Swollen Joints Vanish

PAIN EASED FIRST DAY

If you suffer from crippling rheumatic aches and pains, Neuritis, Lumbago, lame knotted muscles, swollen inflamed joints, it's because your system is full of the irritating poisons that cause rheumatism.

What you need is RU-MA, the new internal medicine that acts on the blood, liver and kidneys, and helps expel these dangerous poisons from the system through the natural channels of elimination. Only an internal medicine can do this.

No long waiting for your suffering to stop—RU-MA eases pain first day and gives rheumatic sufferers such safe and lasting relief from their stiffening, crippling lameness and torturing pain that it is recommended by druggists everywhere.

Eckerd's and New Castle Drug Co. urges every sufferer to get a $1.00 bottle of RU-MA today, and agrees to return the purchase price if it does not free them from all their aches and pains of rheumatism.

Mother Confesses Slaying Her Baby

Body Of Seven Weeks Old Infant Found In New England Swamp

(International News Service)

GLASTONBURY, Conn., Nov. 18.—Twelve hours after his mother had allegedly confessed to the murder, the puny body of Alexander Slogesky, seven weeks old, was found by state police today.

The 43 year old mother, Anna Slogesky, wading doggedly through swamps on her husband's little farm, led 10 state troopers to the spot where she had concealed the poisoned body Monday beneath a few leaves and marked it with a white birch stick.

Superintendent of State Police Major Frank B. Nichols announced at Hartford the woman will be examined by alienists before formal charges of murder against her are considered.

Meanwhile, Medical Examiner Dr. Henry N. Costello continued his examination of bits of bone and charred flesh found by police in wood ash from the kitchen stove. His analysis will be completed late today or tomorrow.

Nazarene Church Young People Night

Young People's night will mark the evangelistic services this evening in the Church of the Nazarene, West Falls street, where Rev. and Mrs. Holland London are the speakers in a revival campaign.

Rev. London, who is a talented musician, will give several piano numbers and Mrs. London will have several readings, after which a sermon will be delivered, which will be especially interesting to youth.

Mr. London announces that he will give a testament this evening to the young man or woman, whose birth date happens to fall on the same date as his. The meeting will convene at 7:30.

Lawrence County Farms And Farmers

By H. R. McCulloch, County Agent

DRAMATIC TOURNAMENT

The second annual Lawrence county Rural Dramatics tournament will take place Tuesday, November 22, in the Shenango high school auditorium at 8 p. m., according to H. A. Leslie, chairman of the county recreational committee.

Four local groups are entered in the tournament this year. New Bedford grange will present "Dead Expense". This group is coached by Irwin Ropp. Westfield grange, coached by Mrs. Wylie Brewster, will present "The Bishop's Candlesticks.' "Another Kitty" will be presented by Plaingrove grange, and is coached by Miss Helen Patterson. The final play to be presented that evening will be "His Methodist's Foot", by East Brook Parent-Teachers association and is coached by Miss Florence Glasgow.

The winner in this tournament will represent the county in a district tournament. The other counties in this district are Beaver and Washington. The winner in the district meeting will participate in the state finals during the farm show at Harrisburg in January.

Any rural organization in the county was eligible to make entry in the tournament. Coaches and members of the production staff will be members of the organizations represented. The plays presented will be one-act plays of not more than 45 minutes duration and will have not less than three characters.

No one will be admitted to the auditorium after the curtain has risen on any play until the completion of that play.

BEE MEETING

"Packing of Bee Hives for Winter Protection" will be demonstrated and discussed at a meeting at the home of David Zimmerman, New Bedford, Monday, November 21, at 2:30 p. m.

E. J. Anderson from State College will be in charge of the demonstration. The packing of bees in this section of Pennsylvania helps them to pass the winter successfully. Colonies often starve during the severe winter when they are unable to move to the supply of honey located in the opposite side of the hive. Packed colonies are able to make this move. Packed colonies also will be able to build up more rapidly after brood rearing has begun in February. The colonies must maintain a temperature above 90 degrees Fahrenheit in the cluster where young bees are being reared.

4-H BEE CLUB ROUND-UP

Members of the East Brook and Plaingrove 4-H Bee clubs will exhibit samples of their honey at the annual round-up and achievement day program to be held in the Plaingrove school building November 21 at 8 p. m.

E. J. Anderson, bee specialist from State College, will be present at the meeting, and will discuss fall management practices with the club members and other bee keepers present.

This is a meeting not only for 4-H Bee club members, but for any bee keepers interested. Plans are under way to have an exhibit of culinary products as well as honey at the round-up.

CHOOSE APPLES BEST IN SEASON AND USE

Answering the question "What varieties of apples should the consumer buy?" the following timely pointers are given:

McIntosh is one of the best dessert apples. Many consider it the best to eat out of hand. It also is one of the finest sauce apples. McIntosh is a juicy, high quality, rich aroma apple. Its season is October, November and December.

Grimes Golden is another old variety, long a leader in Pennsylvania. It is a milk apple, fine for eating, especially by children. It is tart enough to be a good cooking sort. Making a rich, yellow apple sauce, Grimes Golden is excellent, too, for pies and baking. This variety is at its best in October, November and December.

Delicious was the leading dessert apple for many years. Although a milk variety, it is not classed as a sweet apple. It is too mild to be a good cooking apple and should be used as a dessert apple only. Its season is in October, November, December and January.

Jonathan, one of the old-time red varieties, is at its best in the fall months and is still good in many cases in January. It is an all-round apple, good both as a dessert and cooking apple.

York Imperial is truly a winter variety and is in season from November to March. This is not a dessert variety but has its place in the baking class. It is a firm-fleshed variety and stands up well when baked. This quality enhances its value as a pie apple since the sauce does not cook out of the crust. Many prefer the York also as a stewing variety, using the cooked apple as a stewed fruit.

Rome Beauty is another true winter variety, holding well until April. It is not a high class dessert apple but is one of the fine bakers.

Rhode Island Greening is one of the common old varieties hard to excel when well matured. This is rather a sharp acid apple. It is in season from November to April. Many consumers rate Rhode Island Greening as the best of all baking apples. When cooked, the yellow flesh breaks down into a rich sauce, and for this season many prefer this variety whenever it is available. The variety is too tart for some persons as a dessert fruit but others prefer it even for this purpose.

Northern Spy, found in nearly all old farm orchards, is an all-round variety. It stands out in the field of varieties for winter months. It is fine as a dessert apple and ranks with the best in the general cooking class.

Stayman is one of the newer varieties for use throughout the winter. It ranks with the Spy. It is good as a desert apple and is rated as one of the best eating apples by many users.

It is quite likely that Baldwin is known by more consumers in Lawrence county than any other variety. It has stood the test of time and use. It is rated by many as the leading general use winter variety and will hold well in storage through April if well grown and stored at once when harvested.

Ben Davis has its place in the apple world. It will store in good condition until June and if used as a baker or pie apple when in season, which is in most cases from January to June, will be found very satisfactory. Some have said that it is all right as a filler if spice and sugar are used but Ben Davis really has a place in its season and it is not a dessert variety.

ADOPT NEW RULES FOR 4-H BABY BEEF CLUBS

New rules have been adopted for 4-H baby beef clubs desiring to participate in the exhibition and sale of 100 head at the 1934 state farm show.

Counties will show and sell at Harrisburg in the same proportion that the county enrollment bears to the total baby beef club enrollment in all counties desiring to participate in the Harrisburg show.

County round-ups and eliminations will be staged on Monday and Tuesday, approximately two weeks before Christmas. These days next year will be December 11 and 12. It is planned to have a joint sale of calves eliminated in county round-ups under the direction of the Lancaster Stockyards company on Wednesday, approximately two weeks before Christmas. This day will be December 13 in 1933.

Provision also will be made for the equitable distribution of the returns among the members. The owner of the grand champion will receive a sum equal to double the sale average price per pound on all animals except the grand champion and reserve grand champion, provided the grand champion sells at a figure equal to or in excess of such sum. The owner of the reserve grand champion is to receive one and one-half times the sale average price per pound for the 98 head, provided sale is made at a figure equal to or in excess of such figure. In no case will the other members receive more than one and one-half times the sale average. Amounts in excess of these figures will be added to the fund to be prorated to all members. The owners of all other animals are to receive the prices paid by successful bidders whether sold individually or in groups.

Three Auto Cases Tried Together

Second Time Cases Involving Collision Have Been Before The Court

Three cases growing out of an automobile accident at the intersection of Butler avenue and Ray street, are being tried before Judge R. L. Hildebrand at court today. John Russo, Cesare Morgia and Antonio Lattangio are plaintiffs and Theresa E. Travers and others, trading as the Travers Tire Company, and Harry W. Ringer, are defendants.

This is the second suit growing out of the same accident. In the first suit, which was brought by Ringer against the Travers Company, the verdict was in favor of the defendant.

The three plaintiffs in the present suits were riding with Ringer, who was going east on Butler avenue. The Travers car, driven by Oscar M. Leonhardt, was coming west on Butler avenue. When Ringer attempted to make a lefthand turn into Ray street his car was struck by the Travers car and the three occupants were more or less injured.

City-Olsen Contract Approved By City

Council convened in the city hall today and upon motion by Councilman D. O. Davies and agreed to by all members, ordered received and executed by the proper city authorities, a contract between the Victor Olsen Contracting company and the city, whereby the city will pay the firm for increasing the radius of corners in East Washington street between County Line and Ray Sts. The portion between the foregoing points is to be widened and repaved. Copies of the contract will be sent to the state highway department at Harrisburg.

DEFENDANT WINS VERDICT IN CASE

In the case of Thomas and Emma Snow against Louis E. Bogle and Constable Carl Turmanowicz, which was tried before Judge James A. Chambers, in county court, the jury returned a verdict for $121 in favor of the defendant, Louis E. Bogle and against the plaintiff. The case was one in which Constable Turmanowicz had levied upon goods of the plaintiff for rent. It was claimed by plaintiffs that they had no notice of the levy, and that there was no appraisement of the goods five days before they were sold.

Twelve Men Will Play Final Game For New Castle

Six Varsity Regulars Will Play Final Game Against Turtle Creek

Six Reserves Will Don Uuniforms For Last Time Next Thursday

Graduation, semesters and age will take a heavy toll of the "Red Hurricane" football players at New Castle High School. There will be twelve young men play their final game for Coach Phil Bridenbaugh next Thursday. There will be fourteen missing when the season opens in 1933. Captain Mike DeCarbo is out on account of age and has played his final game. Joe Kolodjeski suffered a broken leg in the Charleroi game and will not play any more.

There are six of the varsity regulars who will play their final game next Thursday and all of them have been important cogs in the "Red Hurricane" machine. They will be missed. They will fight hard to end their scholastic careers with a victory.

Will Be Missed

When Bridenbaugh goes to assemble his team for 1933 he will find the following players missing:—Johnny Uram, Tommy Rambo, Mike DeCarbo, Patsy James, Rocco Tomalello, Ron Thomas, William Duff, Joe Kolodjeski, Milton Butz, William Emeric, Walter Small, Arthur Lindsey, Paul Capitola, Glen Hileman. Certainly a fine group of young men and football players every one of them.

As the nucleus of his 1933 team Coach Bridenbaugh will have—Fred and Alex Shellogg, Ed. Raskowski, Freddy Lane, Charles Nickum, and Walter Kominic. Palkovitch, Sorto, Humphrey and Howley will likely draw the varsity posts left vacant this year.

"You can say for me this is a great group of boys. All hard workers and football players. I hate to see them leave. But we will carry on next year and we hope to have just as good a team as we had this year.—Phil H. Bridenbaugh, head coach at New Castle High.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

More than 65,000 seats have been sold for the Notre Dame-Navy game at Cleveland, Saturday. The game will be played at the Stadium. Seven-eighths of the seats are covered. Three hundred policemen and 150 firemen have been assigned to duty.

Gorilla Jones and Jack Purvis have been signed for the Thanksgiving night benefit boxing show at Akron. Press Johnson will oppose Billy Powers and Johnny Shea will take on Tommy Vaughn in two of the other bouts.

Hooker Joe Phillips, formerly of Waynesburg, Pa., player and manager of several minor league baseball teams received part of a charge of bird shot while hunting with his brother S. A. Phillips of Morgantown, W. Va. He was not seriously wounded.

Adam Opalko, Mayfield, Patrick Henehan, Scranton, Edward Kalenkowski, Shenandoah and William Lindes, Pottsville and Tattle Kitchline, Phillipsburg, have been suspended by the Pennsylvania Athletic commission. They are boxers. Jack Sherry, wrestler, was also set down.

Two heavyweights with a combined weights of 511 pounds will box tonight in New York city. They are Primo Carnera, Italian, 260 pounds and Jose Santa, Portuguese, 251 pounds. Carnera stands 6 feet 6½ inches and Santa, 6 feet 3 inches.

While the Titans are playing Geneva at Beaver Falls, Saturday, the Crimson will meet Thiel at Grove City. Coach Amos has driven the Grove City college squad at a hard pace all week as Thiel has primed for the Crimson.

Charley Grimm, manager of the Cubs, has returned to St. Louis, following a conference with President Veeck of the National League champions. Plans for next year were discussed. Grimm told a writer that no deals appeared in eight.

Notre Dame's share of the gross receipts of the Ramblers' game with the University of Kansas at Lawrence, Kansas amounted to $28,225. The attendance was 17,887. Kansas share is reported to have been about $18,816.

Geneva To Lose Seven Players

Will Play Last College Game Saturday Against Titans

LOSS OF HOWELL, SENTINEL, SEVERE

(Special To The News)

BEAVER FALLS, Nov. 18.—When the Genevt Golden Tornado winds up the 1932 home gridiron campaign against Westminster here Saturday seven boys will be making their football farewell. The group includes Sam "Flick" Cooper of Mon City, Edward "Roughhouse" Rodemoyer of Pittsburgh, Dick "Pop" McKee of Willard, Ohio, Marty "Wildcat" Howell of Freedom, Johnny Ifft of Zelienople, Paul "Augie" Heffley of Willard, Ohio, and Robert "Bib" Evans of Zelienople.

Cooper was elected to the captancy the first day of the fall training routine succeeding to the post left vacant by Tommy "Germany" Stauffer of Washington, Pa. When he first came to Geneva he was a fullback but was transferred to a tackle post. Last year he was shifted toward the end of the campaign from tackle to blocking half but this season he started on the line and has remained there ever since. Dick McKee is the other tackle. Cooper on the offense is the right tackle but exchanges with the lighter McKee when Geneva is on the defense. The two rank among the top flight of district linemen and their loss will be seriously felt in 1933.

Rodemoyer has put in three years as understudy to "Slim" Ransom of Burgettstown at center and this year started as the regular pivot. Since the middle of the season he has alternated with "Sap" Campbell of Chester, West Virginia, for the job. He prepped at Peabody High.

Ifft was a plugger for two years on the squadron with little chance of making the varsity grade. Suddenly in 1931 his big chance came when Kent Sole of Weirton, West Virginia, was injured in the opening battle with Duquesne. Ifft stepped into Sole's shoes and amazed Covenanter followers by his brilliant work. This year he has not seen as much service lately being held in reserve for Ray Park, Syracuse, sophomore. Against Waynesburg however he made a splendid bid to regain his old berth.

Heffley and Evans are the backs who will be lost. Both are speed merchants with Evans having the most sheer speed and Heffley the cleverer technique in cutting in for big gains. Heffley is a four year man starring as an understudy for Johnny Knapic in his freshman season.

In many ways the loss of Marty Howell, the little guard, is the most severe. This fellow has often been mistaken for a member of the opposing backfield so often does he knife through to make his presence felt. Harpster ranks him with the best sentinels he has ever witnessed in action. At times he slips below 158 pounds.

Evening gowns have huge velvet bows on the shoulder in contrasting shade to the frock—as violet on bright red.

It is important that all old members of the association meet tonight as well as any others who care to join. The matter of winter sport activities will be discussed.

Union Ready To End Season With Sandy Lake High

Coach Boyd Will Use New Starting Lineup Against Sandy Lake Saturday

IS FINAL GAME ON UNION CARD

With a drastic shake-up in the lineup for the final game of the year against Sandy Lake High, Saturday afternoon at Union High field, the Union High School football team will battle hard to bring in a victory in the last appearance of the 1932 season. The game tomorrow starts at 2:30 o'clock. In event of good weather there will be a fine crowd watch the Unionites in the game that lowers the curtain.

Coach Dave Boyd in an attempt to win the final game has benched all of his Seniors and will start a team of underclassmen made up of Juniors, Sophomores and Freshmen. The switch necessitates the benching of Captain Walter Sniezek, one of the best linemen that Union has ever had, also Ralph Phillips the big fullback and Endrees, the fine end. They may see action in the Sandy Lake game, but only in event the starting team falters.

Union Wants Victory

Union has been drillinng all week on an intricate forward passing attack, as Sandy Lake has been weak against this manner of attack. Coach Boyd reports the Union team in the best possible physical shape for the hard tussle ahead of them. Sandy Lake High with Coach Kenny Delahunty at the helm will bring a powerful team to New Castle, to battle the Unionites. The Sandy Lake team holds the Class B championship in Mercer County. They only lost to Franklin High 6 to 0, and Franklin tied with Meadville for the Northwestern championship.

Union has not had such a successful season, but they have played a mighty tough schedule for the size of the school and Coach Boyd and his Union team are to be congratulated on their showing.

The teams that defeated Union this year are—New Castle, East High Youngstown, Grove City, Freedom, Zelienople, Shenango, and Bessemer. Union has won two games beating Mars and Evans City.

Ohio State Denies Improper Treatment Of Penn Gridders

(International News Service)

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 18—Aroused by charges of inhospitality and poor sportsmanship, reported to have been made by Philadelphia newspapers following the football game here last week with the University of Pennsylvania, Ohio State University entered a denial today in a letter by alumni secretary John B. Fullen.

Philadelphia sports writers were said to have protested against alleged slugging of Penn players by Ohio State athletes, and also declared the Pennsylvania team was not met on its arrival here by Ohio state representatives.

The highest telephone on the North American continent is situated atop Pike's Peak, Colorado, 14,109 feet above sea level.

Thiel-Grove City Battle Saturday

(Special To The News)

GROVE CITY, Nov. 18.—A Mercer County rivalry that began on the gridiron 40 years ago will be renewed on College Field Saturday afternoon, when Grove City and Thiel colleges meet in the football game that will complete the season for each school. There is little to choose between the teams in the season's record, and Saturday's contest shapes up as an even struggle.

Anticipating the hardest game in the long series with Thiel, Coach Amos has been working his squad long hours, giving attention to every phase of offense and defense. Along with scrimmage work and ball-handling drills, the Grover coach has been polishing up a new series of plays designed especially to win from the Lutherans.

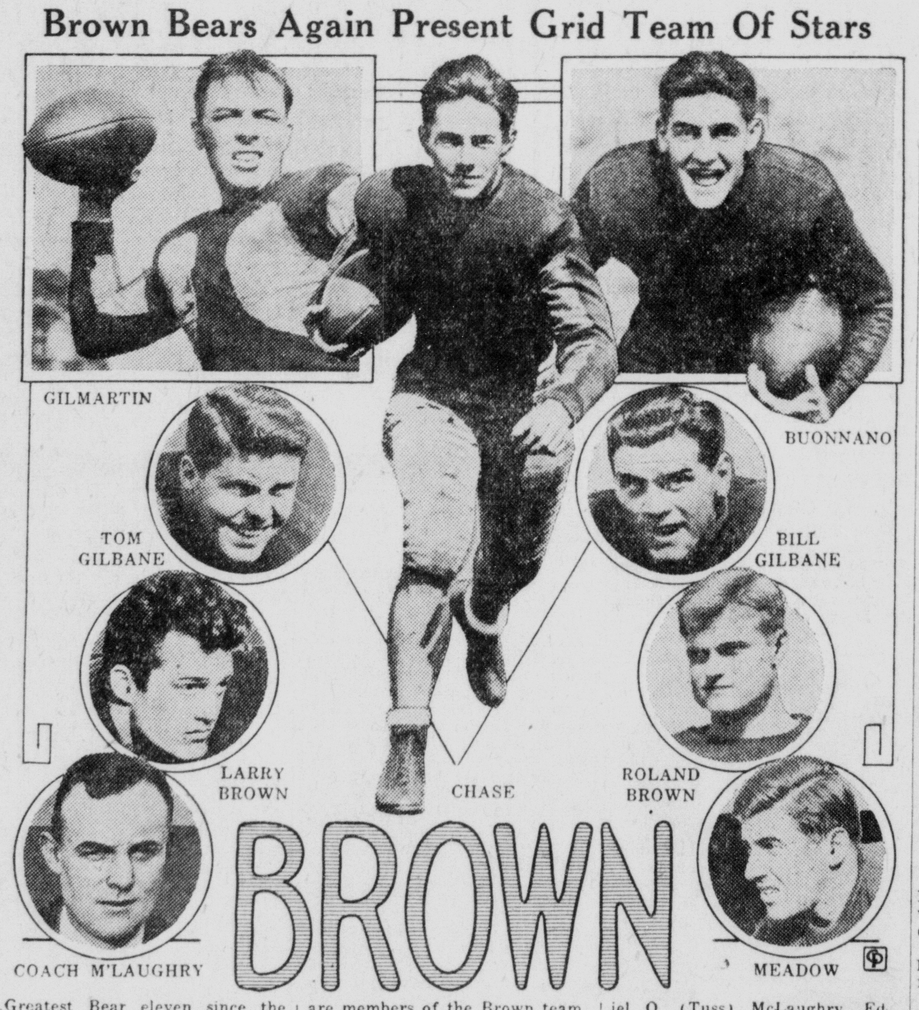
Grove City has a big edge on Thiel since the first game was played in 1892. In 32 games between the county rivals, the Grovers have won 24, lost 4 and tied 3, and have a margin of 532 points to 94. In the past 5 years, the games have been close, although Thiel has scored only once, gaining a 6-6 tie in 1928 after the Grovers had won all but a single game in the campaign. Theil's last victory was a 10-0 decision in 1923.

Coach Amos is planning to start a backfield of Smith, Thomas, Oriss and Gross, but plans numerous substitutions in the ball carrying department. The line will also be shifted often, in the hope of keeping fresh men in the game to oppose the rugged Thiel forwards.

The probable line-ups will be:

Grove City.		Thiel.
Beres	L.E.	Ruehle
McCoy	L.T.	George
Plance	L.G.	Steltzer
Bache	C.	Seiberling
Critchfield	R.G.	Gazetos
Foti	R.T.	Abrams
Soich	R.E.	Lowther
Thomas	Q.B.	Snyder
Oriss	L.H.	Strimer
Smith	R.H.	Schemick
Koma	F.B.	Tomechko

Brown Bears Again Present Grid Team Of Stars



Greatest Bear eleven since the days of the "Iron Men" is this 1932 Brown university team which has made a remarkable record this season. Also remarkable is that two sets of brothers are members of the Brown team. Captain Bill Gilbane, halfback, and Tom Gilbane, center. Larry Brown, left tackle, and Roland Brown, right tackle. Pictured with them, above, are Coach Daniel O (Tuss) McLaughry, Edward Gilmartin, II, halfback, Bob Chase, quarterback and halfback, Frank Meadow, end, Joe Buonnano, quarterback. They meet Colgate in final game.

Westminster To Battle Geneva In Final Game

Coach John Lawther Has Titans In Fine Shape For Game At Beaver Falls

USUAL GLAMOR IS MISSING

With much of the usual glamor of the annual battle missing this year, Westminster College football team will wind up their 1932 football season Saturday afternoon at Beaver Falls by playing Geneva. The game will be staged in the Reeves Stadium. The starting time is 2:30 o'clock.

When we say the glamor is gone, we mean that both teams have known the pangs of defeat this year, the Tri-State title is safely tucked away in a trophy case at Waynesburg College and well a Geneva-Westminster game without a title setting is not very exciting. However, Coach John Lawther and his Titan huskies secretly harbor a desire to upset the Geneva apple-cart.

Watch Titans

If Westminster is at the peak as they must have been in that fine game against Thiel and Waynesburg, then Coach Harpster and his crew will be in for a tough afternoon of footballing. When those Titans are aroused look out. They may spring an upset tomorrow, who can tell.

Geneva will have to keep an eye peeled for this chap Ray Sweeney, Youngstown, Ohio boy, who is quarterbacking at Westminster this year in fine style and is a tricky ball carrier. Staples, Arrowsmith and Scarbrough will complete the Westminster backfield.

The Harpster team will probably feature that youngster Troiano who has been giving the opposing teams plenty of headaches this year. Anyway you look at this game it is bound to be good, but just as we say it looks like a Westminster year, because there is no title at stake.

Stagg To Retire After Saturday

Coach Alonzo Stagg Will Direct Chicago Team For Final Time Tomorrow

HAS BEEN COACH FOR 40 YEARS

By BILL COLLINS
International News Service Sports Writer.

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—On the eve of his swan-song game on the midway, Coach A. A. Stagg philosophized a bit.

The silver-haired dean of football, retired by a Chicago university ageruling, sends his 41st Maroon football team into his 391st football, against Wisconsin tomorrow.

But it was not of tomorrow's game that the grand old man of the midway mused. It was of football yesterday, today, tomorrow—of football players of more than 40 years of participation as a coach and player in America's greatest sport.

Stagg feels that the depression has been a good thing for football. The economic readjustment has done more to de-emphasize football than all of the vitriolic paragraphs of campus journalists, he says.

Figures Speak.

"In 1892," he said, "our entire season's gate at Chicago was $732.92. In 1926 the Army-Navy game receipts in Chicago were $653,000." He let the figures speak for themselves.

Stagg makes no attempt to compare the game of today with the game of yesterday. "Rather, they would have to be contrasted," he said. "For the forward pass has made football a different game."

Stagg has always been known as a foe of the professional game.

"People call me an idealist, I guess.

"But to me, football has always been a game to be played for fun, by boys who seek only physical and mental remuneration.

"If there were any other remuneration I wouldn't have been connected wtih the game for 40 years. After all, there is no greater gain than the development of clean strong bodies, clean strong minds and good sportsmanship."

Football Briefs

(International News Service)

CAMBRIDGE, Nov. 18.—Harvard's eleven, with Rogel Hallowell, injured center, still given a chance to be able to play, will leave today for New Haven and its tradition-laden game with Yale.

NEW HAVEN, Nov. 18.—Sullivan at quarter; Lassiter and Crowley, halfbacks, and Levering, fullback, will probably be Yale's starting lineup tomorrow against Harvard.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Oregon State, which has a new leader for each game, will be captained tomorrow in the fight against Fordham by Arthur Miller, left tackle.

ANNAPOLIS, Nov. 18.—Navy's football team today was enroute to Cleveland where Notre Dame will be played tomorrow. Gordon Chung-Hoon, crippled Navy star, will be able to play part of the game.

Withdraw Williams From League Games

Check-Up Shows He Is Not Eligible For Play

(Special To The News)

BEAVER FALLS, Nov. 18.—The teeth of the new Tri-State Conference rule regarding the awarding of scholarships made itself felt upon the Geneva College varsity football squadron. Its victim is Glenn Williams, freshman fullback from Massillon High School. Director A. C. Edgecombe has announced that he has been withdrawn from all league games.

Williams came to Geneva apparently eligible to receive scholarship. These rewards are now given only to those who rank scholastically in the upper third of their high school division. A checkup on his case reveals he is not eligible and for that reason will be withheld from play. A plea for his reinstatement in 1933 depending upon his scholastic work at Geneva this year, will be made at a Conference session later.

John Begolly, freshman end from Vandergrift High, was also under discussion along with Begolly but his status has been changed and he is not under a scholarship.

Williams-Mooneys To Play Saturday

City Grid League Game Between Mooneys And Oaklands Cancelled

Williams and the Mooneys will play Saturday afternoon in the City Football League, instead of the Oaklands and Mooneys which has been cancelled, it was announced today. The Williams-Mooney game will be at the Fall Track at 2:30 o'clock.

The Oaklands will play the Mooneys on December 3. The game tomorrow should be a good one, as the Williams have met and defeated four teams so far this season as follows: Ellwood City, 6 to 0; Croton A. C., 40 to 0; Seventh Ward, 26 to 0; DeHarts, 26 to 0. The Williams have scored 98 points and are not scored upon. The Mooneys have won two games to date beating the All-Stars and DeHarts.

There is one other game Saturday in the City League with the All-Stars meetinng the DeHarts at Colonial Field.

Eintracht Floor Team To Convene

Eintracht basketball team will meet at eight o'clock Friday night at the Eintracht. The committee having the affairs in charge will convene at the same time.

Unbeaten Teams May Find Going Tough Saturday

Pitt Plays Carnegie Tech, Michigan Eleven Tangles With Minnesota

ANYTHING LIKELY TO HAPPEN ON GRID

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK Nov. 18—On the surface, it's just another afternoon of college football, innocent, mild and without dramatic suspense. In fact, there even is a tendency to point out that the season of 1932 has reached something of an anti-climax. It hasn't. It is so far away from the reactionary stage that tomorrow's program may be largely a delusion, with the deceptive mildness of gun powder before the spark ignites the fuse. In other words, "I'm a pointer-outer myself of no mean repute.

I'm also a runner-downer who thinks that no season of football has been so free of general bluster and uproar. Pitt furnished one exception by beating Notre Dame. Wisconsin vouchsafed another by winning from Minnesota but these, while not strictly in character, weren't beyond the limits of credibility. Even Notre Dame and Minnesota recognized the possibility that Pitt and Wisconsin might win. So football has gone all the way to its final three weeks without departing very greatly from the routine and the commonplace and football is not like that.

Look For Upsets

It's more than due for a few violent upheavels; in fact, it's almost a case where these can't miss and they're liable to come tomorrow in spots where there is least reason to expect them.

Offhand, I'd pick Michigan as a possible victim, Alabama Poly as another and maybe Pitt itself as a third. They figure to win; they ought to. But football always was played on an ought-to basis, the newspapers should be full of potato-racing and the people would stay away in a body.

I'm not figuring Michigan so much in this thing. It has an unbeaten team and seems just about to take over the big ten championship, but to seekers after championships, Minneapolis has always been the port of missing hopes.

Alabama Poly, supposed to be set to win the Southern conference title in the Georgia game, may be minus some of its man-power.

Pitt and Tech

As for Pitt, it has travelled over land and sea a thousand miles or more. It ought to be almost through. On successive Saturdays it has played the Army at West Point, then Ohio state and Notre Dame at Pittsburgh, then Pennsylvania at Philadelphia, then Nebraska at Lincoln and now it is back home to be confronted by its arch-rival Carnegie Tech. There's a schedule calculated to break the back of a corner stone. I don't know what Carnegie Tech has but, under these circumstances, it mightn't even need it.

First Baptist B Team Reorganized

Stock Market Rallies Today

After Five Days Of Decline, Market Shows Rallying Tendencies

RAILS MAKE SMALL GAINS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—After five days of decline, the stock market displayed rallying tendencies today.

Overnight news of the announcement of the date of the Hoover-Roosevelt meeting combined with the cheerful tone of the week-end trade reviews to turn the market upward with gains running to nearly 2 points.

The rails ignored the big decline in car loadings expected in tomorrow's report. Led by Union Pacific, carrier shares scored sizable gains.

American Telephone was a strong spot in the leaders while U. S. Steel common improved with the rest of the list. Steel preferred was sluggish.

Short covering provided the major part of the buying, bear positions being closed out when liquidation failed to develop despite the market's decline all week.

A better tone in wheat helped the farm implement shares.

Case Threshing and Harvester were aided also by declaration of the regular dividends yesterday, the former on the preferred.

Bonds were steady and commodities firmer.

Trading was at the slow pace of yesterday's session though activity picked up slightly on the advance.

Ellwood High To Invade Ambridge For Final Game

Tubers Will Endeavor To Upset Mighty Rubenstein Eleven On Saturday

ELLWOOD'S VICTORY CHANCES ARE SLIM

Reports State, Barnes Will Not Play In Final Game Tomorrow

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 18.—A determined and fighting Ellwood high school grid team will invade Ambridge Saturday afternoon for its final game of the season. Whether it will resemble the same spirited eleven of last year remains to be seen. It will be the last time that nine varsity players will ever don a blue and white uniform for their Alma Mater.

Coaches "Ganzy" Benedict and Mike Ferrare have spent much time and effort in perfecting their running and aerial attack this week. All the players have been put in a determined spirit and proper frame of mind for their second battle with Coach Moe Rubenstein's powerful Ambridge high machine. Much of last year's highlights in the surprise Ellwood victory have been reproduced here. This is the only bright thing that the locals have to look to.

The conditions under which the two teams will battle Saturday will be similar to that of last year when the blue and white eleven invaded Ambridge a decided under dog. Many of the same players of both teams will again be seen in action. There will only be one difference in the meeting. Ambridge who last year took the game lightly, has trained diligently and hard for this contest. They have been priming for the game from the beginning of the season. They will be out to avenge that 13-12 defeat which spoiled a good season for them last year.

The Rubenstein coached team has compiled an enviable record this season. Only two touchdowns have been scored against them, one by New Brighton and the other by California in hard contests. They hold eight consecutive victories.

A number of last year's star performers will again grace the Ambridge lineup. Among these are Micholeson, all county quarterback; Pericelli and Cottage, halfbacks; Captain Gutowski and Matsik, tackles; Bedzyk, end; Kohel, center; and Chyzewski, guard. Ellwood will have to keep a wary eye on Pericelli who is a fast and clever open field runner. He is one of Beaver Valley's outstanding scorers.

The Benedict men are in fine shape for their final game which they hope to make a victory. Fans are of the opinion the game will be won by a low score. Interest is high here regarding this contest, and a big delegation will accompany the team to Ambridge. The only possible chance of victory for the local team is to have them in the proper frame of mind. If their attitude Saturday is the same as today Ambridge fans will sit up and take notice.

It will be a fighting and determined blue and white team that will meet Ambridge tomorrow is a practical assurance considering the fact that nine varsity players will play their last game for Ellwood high, who are anxious to make it a glorious day. With the exception of Louis Demase at left guard, Coach Benedict's first string line is graduating. In this group are Barnes and Johnson, ends; Vogt and Pratt, tackles; Navolio, right guard; and Glover, center. Capt. Joe Welsh who was injured in the New Castle game is also graduating. Departing will also be three backfield men—McCloskey, quarterback; Paal and Howells, halfbacks.

Another sad blow has befallen the Tubers according to reports this morning. Tom Barnes, varsity right end, will not play in Saturday's game. It is stated that Barnes violated a standing rule during the week and has been ordered to turn in his uniform by Coach Benedict. He will probably be replaced by Loccasiano.

The probably lineup:

Ellwood		Ambridge
Johnson	L.E.	Mrozewski
Vogt	L.T.	Gutowski
Demas	L.G.	Chyzewski
Glover	C.	Kohel
Navolio	R.G.	Wilkening
Pratt	R.T.	Matsik
Loccasiano	R.E.	Bedzyk
McCloskey	Q.	Michelosen
Paal	L.H.	Pericelli
Howells	R.H.	Cottage
Luxenberg	F.	Granovich

HOSPITAL NOTES

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 18.—Admitted Thursday: George Frisk of South Second street.

Y JUBILEE FETE ATTRACTS 200

Boys' Clubs Rally Together For Dinner, Program; Social Time Held

A rousing audience of nearly 200 Hi-Y club and Neighborhood club youths of the city's Y. M. C. A. heard a Benjamin Franklin junior high school instructor remind them last night that each can be of service in his daily routine of life about New Castle, that "each can find gold in his own back yard."

Daniel Raciappo, faculty supervisor of Ben Franklin's Hi-Y club was speaking, and "Stop, Look, Listen, Act" was his subject.

Dinner Held Earlier

Just before the 200 had gathered in the Y's banquet room for Raciappo's impressive talk, a group of over 50 representatives of the same clubs enjoyed dinner together. The dinner was the opening event of a gala "Youth Jubilee" but only delegates were permitted to attend it. The assembly later was open to all.

Boys' Work Secretary W. A. Thomas presided over the after-dinner speaking, introducing the five presidents of each club represented, the Senior Hi-Y, Ben Franklin Hi-Y, George Washington Hi-Y, Neshannock Rangers, Hillsville Rangers, Bessemer Hi-Y, and the Junior B's Bible group. Raciappo was also presented here, with a dozen adult leaders of the different clubs.

A social period, in which ping pong and pool and swimming vied for this boys' attention, followed the jubilee festivities in the banquet room.
